SENATE THINKING ABOUT ADJOURNMENT

Ratification Of London Treaty And Passage Of Tariff Bill Important Items

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Responding to President Hoover's wishes, the Republican majority of the senate, without a record vote but by a "consensus of opinion," today decided to act upon the London Naval treaty at the present session of congress.

The Republican senators, meeting in party conference, agreed informally to pass the long pending tariff bill, the $210,000,000 rivers and harbors, the Parker Bus Bill and Veterans' Relief legislation, besides the treaty, before adjourning the regular session.

Senator Watson (R) of Indiana, majority floor leader, declared this program would keep congress in session "until after the Fourth of July."

Find Parachute Jumper Alive After 5 Mile Leap

LANCASTER, Cal., May 26.—Bert White, parachute jumper, who leaped 25,000 feet from an airplane near here in an attempt to set a new record, was recovering today under care of physicians from his thrilling experience.

White was missing hours after his leap from the plane at a height of nearly five miles. He was finally found semi-conscious by a motorist. Although unable to describe in detail his experience because of weakness, it was reported the parachute jumper lapsed into unconsciousness soon after he plunged earthward. It was believed that an automatic attachment for opening his parachute probably saved his life.

The plane from which White made his leap was piloted by Earl Gordon who returned to Grand Central airport, Los Angeles, having lost sight entirely of his companion after the jump.

Memorial Services Honor Departed Heroes; On Sunday Evening

Water Service Is Conducted At North Street Bridge By Veterans And Aides

Later, Annual Memorial Service Takes Place At First Christian Church

Memorial season was fittingly inaugurated here Sunday evening with water services conducted by the Ladies of the G. A. R. at the North street bridge over the Neshannock creek in memory of the heroic dead who lost their lives at sea in defense of their country. Later the annual memorial service was delivered by Rev. G. S. Bennett in the First Christian church.

Unusual interest marked these services this year and those present at both services honoring the memory of those who served their country in the past and have now passed on, were in much larger numbers than for some years past.

The few surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic, veterans of the Civil war, were the honor participants of the service, and were escorted and accompanied by large groups of the Ladies of the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans, the Sons of Union Veterans, Daughters of Union Veterans, Sons of Veterans Reserve, Spanish American War Veterans, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, Service Star Legion and other patriotic organizations.

Inspect New Light System

City Officials And Light Company Head Make Tour Of City

NEW LIGHT PLAN BIG IMPROVEMENT

New Castle Regarded As Best Lighted City In Pennsylvania

City officials accompanied Louis B. Round, superintendent of the New Castle district of the Penn.-Ohio Power system on a tour during which the city street lighting system, revamped recently, was thoroughly inspected.

The inspection trip carried the mayor, W. H. Gillespie, Councilmen Louis Genkinger, Clayton H. Reeves, Stanley Treser, and City Solicitor Robert White into all the wards.

Best Lighted

According to Mr. Round the city has the best street lighting system in Pennsylvania. During the tour the officials appreciated the uniformity of the lights and the changes which have been made.

They expressed keen satisfaction over the way in which the city is illuminated and it is doubtful if more than half a dozen changes in the 1600 lights will be suggested.

In some thoroughfares which previously had been dark it was possible to see pedestrians in the streets two blocks distant. There was no glare and decidedly few dark spots found, the latter being caused by trees.

According to Mr. Round, it is not simply a problem of installing lights but more important, maintenance and keeping the lights burning at full

Council Passes Measure To Sell Conduit System

Action Authorizes Sale To Bell Telephone Company For $70,000

BURNS OPPOSES COUNCIL MOVE

Agreement Will Probably Be Entered Into With Bell Company Now

Council met formally today at the city building and adopted an ordinance and agreement whereby the municipal conduit system can be sold to the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania for $70,000.

The ordinance adopted provided for the city to enter into an agreement for the conduit sale and was followed by the proposed agreement, made a part of the records and the price stipulated was $70,000.

Burns Opposes

Councilman Burns voted against both measures.

He said that he does not believe in the city surrendering its rights for $70,000. He expressed the opinion the conduit is worth $140,000.

When the vote was taken on the agreement which called for a price of $70,000, he said he owned a share of stock in the Bell company.

Councilman Reeves told colleagues he owned two shares of stock.

Solicitor White said it might be a wise move to put the statements in record and dictated this to the stenographer.

The records now read that before they voted they disclosed their holdings, adding "and if this does not keep them from voting they will vote as indicated."

On the roll call Burns asked to be excused saying that was not the main reason and his chief objection was that he is opposed to the sale.

Councilman Reeves said "I can't vote" inferring that if he did and owns stock it might leave a loophole.

The mayor, Councilmen Genkinger and Treser voted favorably.

The ordinance to sell the conduit was submitted by Councilman Reeves May 12, reported from committee May 16 and will become a city law within 10 days.

Passenger Ship Ruined By Fire

Passenger Liner City Of Honolulu Burns To Waters Edge While In Dock

WAS VALUED AT OVER $2,000,000

(International News Service)
HONOLULU, T. H., May 26.—Suffering the same fate as her predecessor—destruction by fire—the passenger liner city of Honolulu lay today, a blackened hulk, alongside pier 8 where she was scuttled last night to avoid danger of explosion.

The original city of Honolulu burned in Mid-Pacific in 1922 when on her maiden voyage on the Los Angeles-Honolulu run. The newer city of Honolulu, placed on the same run in 1927 after $2,000,000 had been expended in remodeling the vessel, was discovered on fire as she lay at her dock late yesterday.

The fire apparently had been raging in her cargo of nitrates for 24 hours before discovery. The entire Honolulu fire fighting force was called out to battle the blaze but the flames steadily gained.

The vessel carried 25,000 barrels of oil.

Finally orders were given to scuttle the blazing vessel. The stern settled first and finally the entire vessel sank in 35 feet of water.

The only casualty, W. Ray Coll, Jr., newspaperman, severely injured in a auto crash speedin' to the scene.

Will Speak At Annual Meeting Of Membership

Membership Of Local Y. W. C. A. Will Hear Executive Of National Board

MARY LOUISE ALLEN

Miss Mary Louise Allen, executive of the finance department of the national board of the Young Woman's Christian associations of the United States, is in New Castle this week as the guest of the local Y. W. C. A. and will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the membership to be held Tuesday evening, beginning with supper at 6 o'clock. Her subject is to be "The Modern Y. W. C. A. in the Modern City."

In addition to her position as acting executive of the finance department of the national board, Miss Allen is a member of the national publicity council of the association as an interpreter of the work to the public.

A Mt. Holyoke graduate, she was born in Hannibal, Mo., where she had the distinction of playing in Tom Sawyer's cave during her childhood.

Mrs. John E. Elliott, president of the board of directors, says of the distinguished guest: "Miss Allen visited our association last spring and her pleasing personality and abundant resources of helpfulness in 'Y' work for her many friends locally, and we are delighted that she could be with us on this occasion."

Supreme Court Rules Buyer Not Violating Law

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—The Supreme Court today ruled that buyers of liquor are not guilty of violating the Volstead law.

The decision was rendered on the government's appeal to sustain an indictment charging James E. Farrar of Boston, with violation of the law.

Although government attorneys had for years made no effort to prosecute liquor buyers, the question was raised to public prominence when Senator Sheppard (D) of Texas, introduced a bill to make the buyer guilty and the attorney general decided to find out whether the law already had done that.

Three Are Missing In Potomac River, Speedboat Upsets

One In Party Of Four Thrown Into Water By Upsetting Of Boat Is Rescued

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Boatsmen today were scanning Potomac river for three members of a party of four cast overboard Saturday from a speedboat off Cobb Island.

One of the party, Francis D. Klimkiewicz, 52, was rescued by fishermen after he had been kept afloat sixteen hours by a life belt. The others, who also had on life belts, were Richard Klimkiewicz, 16, Owen D. Whitcombe, 35, both of this city, and Capt. Arthur Fenwick, of St. Georges Island, Md.

Relatives were hopeful that the three had landed at some point along the river.

Fake Honeymooners Taken To Warren On Check Charge

Man Who Pulled Fast One On Pittsburgh Police Gets Self Jailed

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 26.—G. C. Kirk, self-styled honeymooner who galvanized Western Pennsylvania police into a widespread hunt for his mythical "bride," was taken to Warren, O., early today to face charges of passing worthless checks.

Kirk waived extradition and was returned to the Ohio city in custody of two Warren police officers. Kirk also is wanted in Erie and Franklin, Pa., and Buffalo, N. Y., on charges of molesting boarding house keepers, police said.

The "bridegroom" apparently distraught and worried, appealed to police on Saturday to hunt for his bride who, he said, had mysteriously vanished from the broken-down car on the Lincoln highway.

Kirk confided he was the son of an executive of a Carnation, Washn., Milk Company and that his bride was a graduate of the University of Washington, police said.

Search for the missing and mythical bride ended abruptly Saturday night when the youth confessed, according to detectives that his startling story was based on the hope of extracting money from sympathetic listeners.

GRUNDY PUT UP $291,000 HIMSELF

Candidates Are Telling Senate Probers How Much Was Spent And Why

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—James J. Davis spent $4,541 of his own money in his successful campaign for the Republican senatorial nomination in Pennsylvania against $332,076.14 for Senator Joseph R. Grundy, his chief rival, the Nye committee, found today. Grundy spent $291,000, out of his own pocket.

Davis said his total expenses were $10,541.45.

"You were supported by the Vaux organization in Philadelphia?" Senator Wagner (D) of New York asked. "I was supported by the Republican."

Carnival Gunplay Is Fatal To Four

Four Men Killed, Nine Others Wounded As Rival Gangs Stage Gunplay At Carnival

SHOOTING OCCURS AT LEPANTO, ARK.

(International News Service)
LEPANTO, Ark., May 26.—Gunplay which broke out at an outdoor carnival here between members of two rival liquor and narcotics peddling gangs left four men dead and nine others wounded today.

The deadly exchange of shots occurred early yesterday at the carnival grounds when Ira "Blackie" Williams, one of those slain, was handed a revolver when members of the rival factions met face to face. Both gangs opened fire, scattering the carnival crowd in wild confusion.

Year Long Feud

The killings ended a feud which has raged between the two gangs for more than a year, according to authorities. Court appearances and numerous brawls have marked the rivalry.

The dead were: Williams, 21; Walter Mobley, 38; George Laudermilk, 35; and Clyde Keller, 33.

Only three of the dead were gangsters. Laudermilk having been a bystander who took no part in the

BATTLES HEAD WINDS ALL ALONG COAST

(International News Service)
PERNAMBUCO, May 26.—After a night-long battle with severe headwinds which hampered its progress northward along the Brazilian coast, the dirigible Graf Zeppelin arrived here today at 8:35 a. m. local time (7:35 a. m. Eastern Standard time). Despite the early hour thousands of persons cheered the huge air liner in the streets as it swept through the skies in its second visit to this city. Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the dirigible, headed straight for the Jequia air field, where the Zeppelin first landed after crossing the Atlantic ocean for the sixth time last week. The Graf circled the field once and then nestled slowly down toward the red and white stub mooring mast which had been erected especially for its first visit. A trained crew of soldiers grabbed the landing ropes and lowered the huge ship gently toward the earth.

Makes Slow Time
Slow time was made on the journey northward from Rio De Janeiro due to the head winds. The Graf made little more than 50 miles an hour during any part of the trip. Approximately 24 hours were required for the 1100-mile flight to Pernambuco from the Brazilian capital.

All arrangements have been completed for refueling and provisioning the Graf for its flight to Lakehurst, N. J. with a scheduled stop at Havana. The time of starting is still problematical, but it is thought likely Dr. Eckener will give the cast off order some time early Tuesday.

Aided by their previous experience, the ground crew had little difficulty in attaching the airship to the mooring mast. The ship was anchored safely at 9:10 a. m. (8:10 Eastern daylight saving time). Less than three-quarters of an hour after its arrival over the city.

The huge crowd at the air field again gave the passengers and crew a vociferous welcome.

Mrs. Naomi Smith Is Critically Ill

Mrs. Naomi Williams Smith, who is connected with the Youngstown branch of the Smith-Williams Institute, was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage Saturday afternoon in Youngstown and was rushed to the Youngstown City hospital, where she is in a critical condition.

Mrs. Smith was in her usual health Saturday afternoon and had been rehearsing some readings she was to present Saturday evening at a banquet. She had finished these and started on a new, emotional reading she was learning when she was stricken. A condition of this kind is unusual in one as young as Mrs. Smith but the doctors said it was due to the unusual emotional strain she had put her brain to in her work.

Louis B. Round, Pennsylvania-Ohio Power Company stated today that arrangements are under way for the installation of a spotlight which will beam on the statue of a soldier on the monument at the Public Square. The light will be used during the convention of the Grand Army of the Republic next month.

New Castle will go on daylight savings time on next Sunday morning according to the understanding reached some weeks ago. The daylight time savings period will last for three months, during June July and August.

New Castle is doing a lot of painting these days. Several hundred homes are in the course of getting a new exterior decoration at the present time. All of which is very nice. Keep up the good work.

Cleaning work at the monument on the public square has been temporarily suspended. The workmen started the task without wearing gloves and the acid used in the cleaning affected their hands.

can organization in Philadelphia," said Davis. "I saw Mr. Vare and he said he was not going to run. I told them they were not to use my name in raising any funds."

Grundy's Expense
Washington, May 26.—It cost approximately $335,000 to stage Senator Joseph R. Grundy's unsuccessful campaign for the Republican senatorial nomination in Pennsylvania according to evidence given the Nye committee of the senate today.

Thomas Bell, of Philadelphia, treasurer of the Grundy organization, submitted the figures, but said he could not render a detailed statement because of bills yet outstanding.

Senator Grundy himself was on the stand a few minutes, but referred all questions to his treasurer.

"We have been advised that in Philadelphia there were signs 'Grundy-Phillips Headquarters' and in others 'Grundy-Pinchot Headquarters.' Did you have anything to do with that?"

"No," said Grundy. "They were established by friends who wanted to carry me along."

Bell testified that total receipts were $338,602 with disbursement of $332,076.

Spend $218,000 Of Own Funds
Senator Grundy spent $218,000 of his own money in the campaign, most of which went for advertisements and for county organizations. Funds were contributed to 30 counties and to the Central Fund.

Bell said after county organizations spent money of their own the Central committee would not know of it. These county organizations, however, he told the committee would have to make a report to the state.

"In Philadelphia you gave the money to the wards, didn't you?" Senator Wagner (D) of N. Y. asked.

"Yes, because the ward treasurers were nearer to us."

"Why didn't you do that in Pittsburgh?"

"We gave it to the county organizations there."

The advertising for Grundy was done directly through the publishers and not through advertising agencies, Bell said.

Grundy was then recalled to the stand.

"In placing of orders for advertising did you have anything to do with the orders sent to the publishers?"

"No," said Grundy.

"Nye, a newspaper publisher, asked about a notation on the advertising orders for publishers to notify Grundy headquarters about the 'correct rate for political advertising but do not leave this ad out because of rate.' This, from a publisher's standpoint is unusual," said Nye. "Do you know anything about it?"

"No."

Grundy's Ideas.
Nye then put into the record the statement made during the campaign by Grundy to the senate committee of privileges and elections that "undue influence was being used in the campaign." Grundy said he did not want to amplify his statement.

"Mrs. McCormick spent $252,000 of her own money and you spent $231,000 of your money. The salary of a senator for six years is $60,000. How much do you think a candidate should spend? I want to get your philosophy," said Senator Dill (D) of Washington.

"I do not think there should be any limit. I don't think money enters into it. In great states like Pennsylvania and Illinois I think that the people of the state should be advised of the facts in a campaign and money doesn't enter into it at all."

"Do you feel that the type of Pennsylvania needs the type of representative in the senate who can contribute vast sums?" Nye asked.

"Yes, I do."

"Do you think that all of these laws limiting political expenses are illogical?" Senator Wagner (D) of New York asked.

"I don't if you live up to the law."

"Don't you think that there should be a limit placed on money spent by a candidate, say from a railroad or public utility, seeking government favors?"

"No."

Grundy said, however, that a man so elected, "would be in a pretty embarrassing position."

"The only watchers at the polls were in Philadelphia," Grundy testified. "Outside Philadelphia that county organization took care of that work."

"You were not connected with any campaign for governor or congressman for any campaign for governor?" Nye asked.

"Absolutely not."

"A man of ordinary means would not have stood a ghost of a chance in the Pennsylvania primaries would he?" Nye asked.

"Mr. Pinchot did not spend much," Grundy replied.

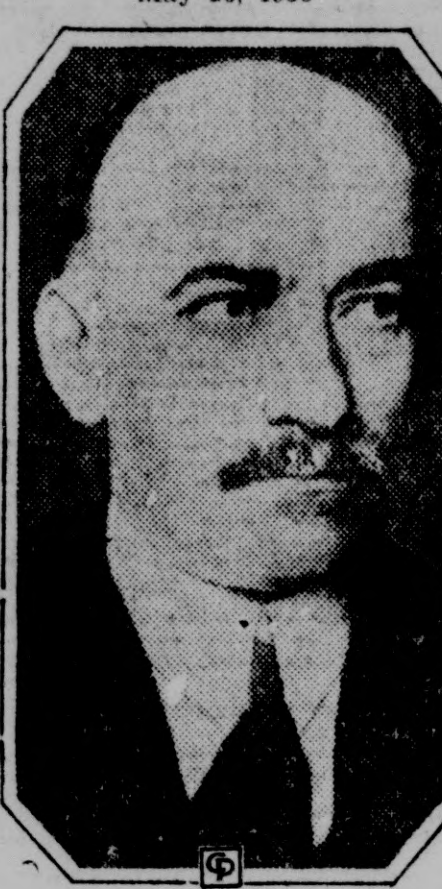

Grundy said he did not consider the sum vast when you take in the size and population as a state like Pennsylvania. He said he was against any limit to expenses in a campaign to educate the people.

"A quarter of a million is not large in Pennsylvania," continued Grundy. "But it might be in a state like Nevada."

Secretary Davis then took Grundy's place in the witness chair.

NEXT TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN SEEN FROM AMERICA

Readers of this paragraph should keep in mind that there will be a total eclipse of the Sun, available to many observers in New England, on April 28, 1932, and not so brief as was the recent one in California. This will last a minute and a half, and have a path about one hundred miles wide, so there will be no doubt before hand as to whether one is really standing within the path of totality. It will cross the northeast corner of Vermont, and all of New Hampshire excepting its southwestern corner, southwestern Maine, the northeastern corner of Massachusetts near Gloucester, and across Cape Cod.

SENATE LEADERS FORM CAUCUS TO SPEED UP ACTION

to postpone action on the treaty until the next regular session in December, but the President's threat of a special session won a number of converts to the cause of immediate consideration. Administration leaders predicted the conference would vote to hold the Senate in session until the treaty is acted upon.

The $300,000,000 rivers and harbors bill was certain of a place on the legislative program. Reports were current that House leaders had threatened to keep Congress in session all summer if the waterway bill were not enacted. This measure carries authorization for river and harbor improvements in 44 states, and consequently has tremendous political backing. Its opponents describe it as the "worst pork barrel bill in history."

Given Right-of-Way
The administration's new tariff bill, battered around for the last 18 months, will be given the right-of-way. It will be called upon by the Senate tomorrow, but it will be subject to four points of order due to exorbitant increases in the duties of cheese, cherries, rayon manufactures and waxes.

Administration leaders hoped to overcome these objections by a direct vote of the Senate, but there was no assurance Vice President Curtis would submit the questions to the Senate for a vote.

A counter uprising against the tariff was being agitated in the House, by opposition toward the compromise rate of $1.00 per thousand feet on soft-wood lumber. Opponents of this duty were seeking votes to reject the conference report entirely, the only method by which they can now reduce the lumber duty. The tariff chiefs said this maneuver would fail and that the lumber duty would be written into law.

Opinion Differs
There was wide divergence of opinion over the date of adjournment. Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, who will lead the fight for ratification of the London treaty, said he expected Congress could adjourn by the "middle of June." Senator Watson (R) of Indiana, the majority leader, predicted adjournment by July 1. Some opponents of the treaty said it would be the "middle of the summer."

The President's threat of an extra session, however, aroused the usual senatorial desire to "collect mileage." It may be that an agreement will be reached to adjourn the regular session following passage of the tariff and the rivers and harbors bill, and then have the Senate meet in special session. This would pave the way to giving senators "mileage" payments, even though it would take a resolution of Congress to pay them.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HONOR DEPARTED HEROES SUNDAY

triotic organizations, headed by Lieutenant John D. Kennedy, chief marshal, and his aides, William S. Lewis, Frank S. Nessel, Major W. F. Jackson and James A. Bell and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Bugle and Drum corps, marched from the city building to the North street bridge, where a large group of interested citizens had gathered for the water service.

Here the usual beautiful service in memory of those who died at sea for their country was carried out under the supervision of the Ladies of the G. A. R.

The service opened with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee" by the vast throng of people. Prayer by the Rev. Clifford S. Joshua, pastor of the Croton Avenue M. E. church, followed, after which a special anthem was rendered by the choir of the Croton M. E. church.

A. T. Kissinger, a former sailor, then offered a few remarks in the course of which he most fittingly recited two poems of his own pen, "The Sailors Tomb" and the "Sinking of the Nina."

Rev. Joshua speaks.

Rev. Clifford S. Joshua then delivered a special oration bringing forth the benefits that those of today had derived through the sacrifice of those who had lost their lives at sea and elsewhere in the service of their country. He concluded his remarks with a plea that those of us now living dedicate ourselves to the preservation of this wonderful country, its laws and ideals, which were made possible by the sacrifices of those whose memory was being observed at the present time.

His address was followed by the ritualistic service of the Ladies of the G. A. R. for the occasion during which flowers were strewn on the waters of the Neshamock by the ladies, while the flags of the organization were waved and the choir directed by Mrs. June Bernard rendered a suitable selection.

The service was brought to a fitting close with three volleys by a firing squad of the Sons of Union Veterans followed by taps and benediction.

At First Christian Church.

Immediately following the service, the organizations reformed and paraded on Croton avenue and Washington street to the First Christian church, where those participating occupied the entire center portion of the church auditorium.

Here the service opened with the singing of "America" followed by a short prayer by Rev. Bennett. Following an anthem by the choir, directed by Prof. R. E. Johns, Rev. Bennett read the 42nd Psalm as the scripture lesson than again led in prayer.

A quartet from the senior high school band then presented two recitations in keeping with the occasion. Rev. Bennett extended a warm welcome to the various organizations represented. A vocal quartet of the church then rendered "Memorial Flowers" and "Tenting on the Other Shore." Following the hymn "Oh God, Behead Thy Guiding Hand" by the audience, Rev. Bennett then delivered a masterful sermon on the subject "Our Memorials."

Rev. Bennett said among other things that "Every nation has its memorials as a tribute to its heroes and it is fitting that this country should also have memorials to those whom we hold dear. Most memorials are those of stone. The tragedy of such memorials is that in time they crumble, decay and pass out of existence. It is better that our memorials should be such as will live forever in the minds of the people and contribute to the life and progress of our country."

The service was brought to a close by the singing of "God Bless Our Native Land." The audience stood at attention as the handful of Civil war veterans, then the veterans of other wars passed out of the church auditorium.

The country isn't going backward. It just seems that way because the radios, vacuum cleaners and talking machines are going back.

The President is building a little dam on his trout stream. It gives him something to say when he thinks about the Senate.

SWANSON-ANDERSON NUPTIALS PERFORMED

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Saturday, May 24, at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Linnea Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Swanson of 2307 Albert street, became the bride of Charles W. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Anderson of Brooklyn, New York, in the bride's home.

The Rev. F. E. Stough, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church officiated with the ring ceremony.

The bridal party entered the parlor to strains of Lohengrens wedding march played by Mrs. Emil Westlund of Youngstown, Ohio, which was followed by the vocal selections "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "My Tassie" sung by Oscar Anderson accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Westlund. Palms and ferns embanked around the room where the nuptials were read, formed a most fitting scene for the occasion.

The bride who was beautifully gowned in a pale blue period-dress, carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. She was attended by Evelyn Swanson, a sister, who wore a frock of pale yellow organza of the same style and carried tallman roses.

Oscar Anderson, brother of the groom served as best man.

At six o'clock a wedding dinner was served in the bride's home, plans being laid for fourteen guests. The table was elaborately decorated in tones of green and pink with a large dresden bouquet forming the centerpiece.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of the local Senior High school, class of '23 and is also a graduate of the Augustana Training school for Nurses of Chicago, Ill., class of '29. Mr. Anderson is a graduate of Brooklyn Polytechnical school, class of '27 and is a member of Delta Kappa Pi honorary chemical engineering fraternity. He is at present employed with the Tolhurst Machine company as sales manager, at Troy, New York.

Following the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for Eaglesmere, Pa. For traveling, the bride wore a green ensemble.

They will be at home to their friends after June 15 at 33 Belle avenue, Troy, New York.

Out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. August Anderson, father and mother of the groom, of Brooklyn, New York, Oscar Anderson of Rock Island, Ill., Rev. and Mrs. Emil Westlund and daughter Lois of Youngstown, Ohio, and John Chester Westaway of Troy, New York.

Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McKee of Hazen street, entertained Friday evening in honor of the seventh birthday of their niece, Catherine Van Dyke. The affair was in the nature of a surprise.

Radio music and games of various kinds were the diversions of the social period of the evening. At a seasonal hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Hobart Harrison of Quest street.

The honor guest received quite a number of beautiful gifts. The guests of the occasion, who numbered fifteen were as follows: Naomi Pitzer, Charles Pitzer, Harriet Kempell, Betty Elizabeth Gross, Jean Krepps, Betty Krepps, Stella Kramer, Viola Taylor, Rena Henderson, John Henderson, Jackie Matthews, Charles Miller, Margaret Miller, Leroy Garver, and Carl Van Dyke. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Harrison of Quest street, were special guests of the occasion.

SUSPENSION OF IMMIGRATION

THERE is a lot of merit in the suggestion made by Representative Albert Johnson, of Washington, Republican, and chairman of the House Immigration Committee, that immigration to the United States be suspended entirely for a period.

The idea is that unemployment conditions in the United States would be bettered if immigration was entirely halted at the present time. It is not the project to stop immigration indefinitely, but to suspend acceptance of immigrants until such a time as their arrival in the United States would not add to the already serious burden of unemployment.

We do not see why this is not an entirely logical step. Immigrants in almost all cases come to the United States in the hope of bettering their condition. Most all come without resources.

Immigration is all well and good in normal times. Suspension of immigration would only extend until such a time as there was a guarantee that immigrants who were landed at New York or any other port were not coming to this country to enter into competition with Americans and persons of foreign birth who are already here, for the all too limited employment now available for unskilled workers.

United States has passed the point in its history when it must discard the idealism that this country presents an open door for the oppressed of the world, an opportunity for all who seek to come. United States must look to the welfare of its own inhabitants first.

Suspension of immigration is a logical and justifiable step at this time.

EUROPE'S PROBLEM

The United States of America is a continent-wide economic unit and a federated nation which leaves a large share of government to the individual states. It is a pattern of union which has withstood all shocks and produced prosperity, power and contentment in a high degree.

Out there beyond the Atlantic lies Europe hampered by excessive territorial divisions, differences of language and traditions, ancient, local and national antagonisms—multiplied obstacles to political and economic co-operation. In their complete political and economic independence the European countries have found strife, tests of power, insecurity and a constant economic struggle. So the dream of Europe is of a United States of Europe made plausible by the amazing success of American experiment.

Constantly annoyed and handicapped by her over-abundant boundary lines and internal divisions, Europe's natural reaction is to wipe out these boundary lines, or at least to reduce them to the harmlessness of the boundary lines between our states.

Some sort of a federation of European states seems to be the logical move, but while a simple matter theoretically it is almost an impossibility. The 13 original states in America found confederation no easy task, and they had behind them no centuries of wars, hatreds, fears, suspicions, envy, prejudices and over-emphasized nationalism.

The United States of Europe may some day be a reality, but it will not be built in a day or by the scratch of diplomatic pens.

STRAW VOTES AND PROHIBITION

While there is still a lot of propaganda being circulated against Prohibition, and efforts are being made in Metropolitan centres to force the failure of the 18th amendment, there is not apparent such great enthusiasm as there was before the Pennsylvania primaries of last week.

Arthur Brisbane, one of the leading observers of the day, always with a pronounced wet leaning, reflects:

"PROHIBITIONISTS will find comfort in the Pennsylvania election. Recent wet and dry polls seemed to indicate that the whole country is wet and longing for beer. Gifford Pinchot ran for governor of Pennsylvania as an ardent dry and won. There is a difference between straw votes and real votes.

"THE LITERARY DIGEST wet-dry poll discovers that 43 states are moderately wet, five dripping wet, five bone dry.

"To repeal the prohibition amendment would require the votes of 36 states. If the attempt is ever made it will be seen that of those 43 'moist' states, half will vote against repeal."

Idea is funny little things. They won't work unless you do.

Three-fourths of all motor vehicles are sold on credits. Riders pay as they go.

Peace is an interval during which nations make resolutions to be chivalrous next time.

Men prefer to be hot to bothered. Therefore the terrible flop of the Dartmouth shorts.

Don't kill your bore acquaintances. Lend them five each and you won't see them any more.

COMMON PLACE

This much we know, they are admired
Who kept the faith though worn and tired.

They best beloved are, who seek
The warm affection of the neck
And undisturbed by pomp or place
Do common little tasks with grace.

The mother at her sewing sings
And reaps the love such labor brings.
The father, for his son's sake, stands
Before a lather with grimy hands.
And at his dreary post can see
The man that is some day to be.

Power hammers at the soul, and pride
Would push all gentleness aside.
Strength tempts us all, though right
Or wrong.

To prove by triumph we are strong,
But brave is he who stays behind
And chooses rather to be kind.

This much we know, in tender thought
Perfection of the soul is wrought.
They best beloved are, who stay
At humble posts from day to day.
And bear with fortitude and grace
The burdens of the common place.

THERE IS GREAT DANGER—

In forgiving ourselves too quickly.
In presuming on the good nature of God.

In judging all men by one rule.
In measuring other men's vices by our virtues.

In keeping one day holy unless all days are kept holy.
In the vacation that does not make us more ready to work.

In praying only when we are getting the worst of it.

The best argument against preparedness is the relative national health of Germany and those who licked her.

What a great country! Helplessly wringing its hands because professional stock gamblers make hard times.

MRS. NAIDU, GANDHI'S SUCCESSOR as leader, goes to jail for nine months.

Two hundred thousand Hindus marched on the British fort area at Bombay yesterday. You would call that serious.

But 400 policemen stopped the 200,000. The latter sat down on the ground and sang songs.

Irishmen wouldn't do that.

THE GRAP ZEPPELIN, having sailed 4,000 miles to Brazil in 60 hours, started last night for Rio de Janeiro. Those who have spent three weeks on the same trip know what it means to reduce the time to 60 hours.

A heavier-than-air flier starting from Connecticut for Buenos Aires, hopes to make the trip in 60 hours, 7,500 miles. Flying is really coming.

CONGRESS VOTES, 210 to 18, an inquiry into "Red activities." This means the effort of "Red Russia" to change the government of the United States by persuading the "toilers" to arise in their might and throw off their chains.

Throwing off your chains would be all right, but throwing off your automobile, radio, vacuum cleaner, talking machine and other accessories of the modern worker would make life dull.

IF CONGRESS WILL use its brains and the nation's resources to keep competent workers busy, it need not worry about any imported Russian "Red program."

If it doesn't keep American workers busy, it may have a Red program, homemade, more dangerous than anything ever devised.

SCIENTISTS ARE interested in the thumb of the gorilla, not much bigger than that of a human baby. It is an insignificant little thing attached to the gorilla's huge hand, and it proves that thinking has developed the human thumb. Lack of thinking by the gorilla explains his thumb being so small. It is used only as a hook to put over branches of trees. Man uses his thumb for ten thousand different purposes in connection with all four of his fingers and all his tools.

DR. OSBORN AND DR. MCGREGOR, both as learned as Aristotle and Archimedes combined, do not agree on the meaning of gorilla thumbs. Dr. Osborn says that gorilla thumbs have no use. Dr. McGregor says "nothing of the kind."

What it certainly proves is that the gorilla doesn't know how to think, except in a very primitive way. That does not disprove the ancestor theory. Many have ancestors who did not know how to think, and many of us haven't learned yet.

She goes abroad for three reasons: to see her step-son, to see the Paris before she dies, and, said she, "to see if those French vintages are as good as they say."

That statement about the French vintages will be offensive to our authorities. The lady has sailed, or steps might have been taken to leave her at home.

SMALL BOY STUFF

Being an editor has its lighter moments. . . . Particularly when we get a small boy's composition to read. This one was sent in by his father:

Water is found everywhere, especially when it rains, as it did the other day when our cellar was half-full. Jane had to wear her father's rubber boots to get the onions for dinner. Onions make your eyes water and so does horse-radish when you eat too much. There are a good many kind of water in the world—rain water, soda water, holy water and bine. Water is used for a great many things. Sailors use it to go to sea. If there wasn't any ocean the ships couldn't float and they would have to stay at home. Water is a good thing to catch fish in and to run under bridges. Nobody could be saved from drowning if there wasn't any water to pull them out of. Water is first rate to put out fires. That is all I can think about water, except the Flood.

During the night a big black bear entered the cabin of Ole Swenson, an Indian living in the woods near Westwood, Cal., and while bruin helped himself to the eatables in the shack, Ole escaped through a window and shivered in the cold until the bear left. We, who have read Indian stories such as "Old Rube the Sure Shot of the West," never thought for a moment that the time would ever come when a redskin would turn pale and be afraid of a bear.

A bird in Brooklyn put frosted glass windows in the windows of his home so his wife could not flirt with men. He also had the lower sashes in them nailed down so they could not be opened from the inside or outside. Why would any women want to live with a bozo like that anyhow?

It was demonstrated in Pennsylvania that the student primaries in places progressive enough to have them installed, that voting machines are to answer to a lot of election troubles. In the first place they can count figures, which is something some members of election boards cannot do. And there is no politics in the voting machine and will not be in a tooth on that account.

Borglum Volunteer Editor Faces Unappreciative Nation

Public Seems To Prefer Coolidge's Own History Of Republic And To Consider That Sculptor Lacks Proper Sense Of Duty

An unappreciative public looks upon the editing by Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, of former President Coolidge's 500-word history of the republic, as destructive and unwarranted. Mr. Borglum's function, it is pointed out, is to carve the history on Mount Rushmore in the Black Hills, rather than to edit it.

"Writing, man, isn't ink, it's heart's blood," exclaims the RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER, with the added note he has submitted that epigrammatic short-cut for words and commas throughout the two Coolidge paragraphs he has edited. The ex-president at least will have the English teachers on his side. Mr. Coolidge has far refused to comment on the blue penning, but we just know he feels pretty bad about it. In a recent magazine article he quoted with obvious pride the letter of an admirer who said he had appropriately placed the 'Autobiography' on a bookshelf alongside the family Bible. Has anyone ever placed any of Mr. Borglum's sculptures beside the graven tablets from Mount Sinai?

Candidates To Tell Committee About Expenses

Senate Fund Committee Orders Secretary Davis, Grundy And Bohlen To Appear

WILL GIVE REPORTS REGARDING MONEY

If Irregularities Are Found Committee Will Recommend Probe

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, May 26.—Launching its inquiry into expenditures in Pennsylvania's recent senatorial primary, the Senate Campaign Fund committee met today to hear reports from Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, who won the Republican nomination, and the two losing candidates, Senator Joseph R. Grundy and Francis H. Bohlen.

The candidates were expected to appear in person to present detailed statements on all their contributions and expenditures in the primary that ended last Tuesday. They also were requested to bring along the chairman of their campaign committees, with similar reports on expenditures by the committees.

Committee To Decide

Once the information presented by the candidates is studied, the committee will decide whether to make further investigation and whether to hold hearings in Pennsylvania. There undoubtedly will be no such protracted inquiry as featured the 1926 senatorial election, since the committee received reports from its observers that last Tuesday's election passed in a "quiet and orderly manner." Thus far, there have been no formal charges of election frauds.

In 1926 the committee made a far-reaching inquiry, revealing that William S. Vare and his organization spent over $1,000,000. This tremendous expenditure led ultimately to Vare being barred from the Senate.

GIRL SCOUTS

Ellwood Camp Rally
Miss Nance Pugh, city director of Girl Scouts will attend a camp rally of Ellwood City Girl Scouts, today. The five troops will meet at Ellwood Park, for supper and camp meeting.

Register For Camp
Miss Nance Pugh, Girl Scout director, announces that Girl Scouts should begin now making registration for camp, which will be held at the Fred Rentz Y. M. C. A. grounds from August 5-19.

Supper at Park
Troop 4 of which Miss Nance Pugh is leader, will have supper at Gaston Park Tuesday evening. The girls will meet at the corner of Arlington avenue and Washington street at five o'clock. After supper they will have a troop meeting.

Council Dinner
A Girl Scout council dinner will be an event of Wednesday evening, it is announced today.

Sell Poppies
Many Girl Scouts did their Saturday good turn by selling poppies, even though it necessitated giving up the open air meeting at Gaston Park.

Father-Daughter Banquet
Some 45 Girl Scouts and fathers were present at the Fathers and Daughters banquet in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A. Friday evening. Mrs. W. H. Hanger opened the program with a few words of welcome to the fathers. Miss Patty Cubison gave an interesting talk on, "Why I am Going Back to the Scout Camp."

Miss Nance Pugh, city director of Girl Scouts, told of the 1930 Scout camp. Girl scouts will have camp at the Fred Rentz Y. M. C. A. camp grounds, from August 5-19.

Miss Elizabeth Reis, Girl Scout commissioner, was next on the program with side lines on the recent regional conference, held in Philadelphia. Miss Reis was the New Castle delegate to the conference. The next regional conference is to convene in New Castle.

Miss Catherine Beach was in charge of songs, at the banquet and Miss Donna Jean Beall was in charge of the program. Bingo was an interesting diversion, following dinner.

The tables were suitably decorated and the places were designated by pretty green trefoil place cards. Miss Bonnie Christman and her patrol prepared and served the dinner, without the help of the leaders.

A vote was taken to decide which girl was the best all around Girl Scout during the past Scout year. Bonnie Christman was given that honor. The banquet given by and for the Minnehaha troop.

Saturday Hike
One hundred Girl Scouts of New Castle enjoyed a hike and outdoor meeting Saturday morning, at Gaston Park. This was the last gathering of all the troops, for this season. However, there will be more individual troop meetings.

Six troops went to the park at 8 o'clock for breakfast. At 9:30 3 or 4 more troops gathered there, and an hour was passed quickly playing outdoor games.

Rendezvous meetings of the various troops were held and challenges exchanged. Among the challenges accepted was a knot tying contest. Jean Hicks of Troop 1, proved herself to be the best knot tier present.

Mrs. W. H. Hanger, a leader, conducted a signalling contest. Miss Elizabeth Reis, commissioner, presented gold attendance stars to Dorothy Hanna, of Troop 1, Jean Copeland, Dorothy Fry, Mary Ellen Lalley, Charlotte McWilliams, of Troop 4, Audrey Gilliland of Troop 6, and Donna Jean Beall, of Troop 4. Those members were present at every meeting during the year and no excuses for absence was allowed.

Miss Nance Pugh, city director, was present. Taps ended the meeting.

Aha! Female Moth Is Prettier Than Male

Clark Rutter, of Washington street, is the proud owner of two handsome and rather unusual pets. They are beautiful, do not bite, do not eat, and live for a very short period.

Take three guesses and then mark down a zero under your name, because you would never guess what sort of pets, Mr. Rutter has. But, we must stop this suspense—the pets are a male and a female Cecropia moth and were sent to Mr. Rutter, just recently, by a friend in Wheeling, West Virginia.

The moths were sleeping cozily, inside silky cocoons when sent to Mr. Rutter, but yesterday, their curiosity got the better of them and they emerged to give this old world the once over. The developed moths require no food nor drink, as the mouth parts are undeveloped, according to Rutter.

Mrs. Moth is much the more handsome than the male. Her wings are more colorful and more wide spreading—would probably measure six inches from tip to tip. She will lay about 200 eggs during her span of life, which is about 12 to 20 days.

Strange things, these, and interesting to raise from eggs through the four molts. When an adult caterpillar, they are beautiful greenish blue fellows, with brilliant silver spangles. They are rarely seen in this county, but are not unusual sights in West Virginia.

Mothers And Daughters Have Church Banquet

New Wilmington M. E. Church Is Scene Of First Annual Banquet

Ninety mothers and daughters gathered for their first annual banquet recently in the church dining room of New Wilmington M. E. church.

Peonies and iris formed lovely centerpieces for the tables. A delicious chicken menu was served by the Men's Brotherhood of the church in a very efficient manner.

With Mrs. Wallace Pitzer as toastmistress, an excellent program was presented. Mrs. V. L. Bloomquist led in prayer. Mrs. Harold L. Black told of the origin of Mothers' Day. Miss Dorothy Reese gave the toast to mothers and Mrs. Walt Whitman responded with a toast to daughters.

Readings fitting the occasion were given by Misses Betty White, Helen Williamson, Mildred Vievey and Betty Jane Cummings. The Busy Bee class sang the welcome song to mothers, with original words to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

Misses Alida and Betty Shaffer entertained with a vocal number, "Mother Machree".

Mrs. Frank McClure discovered the oldest mother present and also the mother of the largest family, and beautiful plants were presented to them by Miss Maxine Pitzer.

Mrs. V. L. Bloomquist gave a very inspiring talk to the mothers and daughters, followed by a few words on "The Home", by Mrs. Wallace Pitzer, at the conclusion of which all joined in singing "Home, Sweet Home".

Accompanists of the evening were Misses Gertrude Minner and Margaret Reese.

Harrison Johnston Wins Tourney Match

American Amateur Champion Wins Match In Opening Round Of British Amateur Play

By F. A. WRAY
International News Service Staff Correspondent
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 26.

Harrison Johnston, amateur champion of America, scored the first invading triumph in the British Amateur Golf Championship today when he disposed of Bernard Drawin, British veteran, by 2 up and 1 to play. The latter won only one hole of the seventeen played.

In another match, J. D. Dewar, Scotland, won from Paul Azbill, Essex County, N. J., by 1 up, eighteen holes.

Neither Johnston nor Drawin played an impressive golf, the American's putter failing him with chronic regularity while Darwin, tiring badly in the stretch, seemed to become rattled in the face of Johnston's calm demeanor under fire. They halved the first seven holes but the American won the eighth to turn for home, 1 up. He was 38 to the turn to Darwin's 39.

They also halved the tenth where Johnston was in the rough and took three putts, while the Briton was trapped and failed to get out. Jimmy also missed a putt in the eleventh and the match was squared but thereafter he was always on top, finally winning with a pair of 3's at the fourteenth and seventeenth.

Banquet Features County Sabbath School Sessions

Will Be Part Of Annual Convention At Cathedral On June 19

One of the features of the 92nd Convention of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association which is to be held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral Thursday, June 19, morning and evening sessions, will be a Christian Fellowship Banquet just before the evening session.

All of the Sabbath Schools of the county will have an equal opportunity to be represented as those attending will be limited to seven percent of the enrollment. Letters have been sent to the Sabbath School superintendents of the county giving the number that can attend for each Sabbath School. All of the reservations must be paid for in advance at one dollar per plate and some Sabbath Schools will doubtless follow the custom of past occasions of this nature and send the officers and teachers. However, those wishing to be present at this happy fellowship occasion may notify the superintendent and turn over one dollar for the reservation. Seats for the evening session will be reserved for those attending the banquet.

A beautiful shield will be awarded the Sabbath School having the best attendance at the banquet on enrollment. Sabbath Schools wishing to increase their quota may do so as there may be some schools who do not use all of their quotas.

All of the Convention speakers will be present at the banquet and while there will be a few brief greetings, each speaker will be limited to three minutes. The fellowship singing will be in charge of John W. Owens.

Candidates Must State Position On Prohibition

Every Candidate For Congress Or Senate Is Being Quizzed

(Special To The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26.—Every member of Pennsylvania's delegation in congress was challenged to voice his views on prohibition by a questionnaire sent to each member of the senate and house today by the National Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

The questionnaire asks the members of congress one question—do you favor the repeal of the 18th amendment—and along with it went a request for an answer as soon as convenient.

Accompanying each questionnaire also was a statement from Henry Curran, president of the association, explaining that the association is seeking answers to its question in order to determine what candidates it will support and what ones it will oppose during the coming election.

In view of the fact that the association says frankly it is going to base its campaign upon the replies to the questionnaires, certain members of congress who have been trying to sidestep the prohibition question find themselves in the position of ignoring the questionnaire and thereby incurring the opposition of the national association or of answering the question and perhaps exciting a storm back home among certain followers disagreeing with the congressmen.

Roenick To Enter Naval Academy

(Special To The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26.—Congressman J. Howard Swick's candidate for admission to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis John G. Roenick at Butler, has successfully passed the mental entrance examinations to the Academy, the Congressman has been advised by the bureau of navigation.

Roenick took the examination on April 16 and his successful passing of them means that he will report to the Naval Academy for physical examination June 18. If he passes the physical examination he will enter the school on the same date.

19,813 WORLD-FAMOUS BEAUTY EXPERTS ADVISE PALMOLIVE!

"I advise Palmolive because of its safe, soothing cosmetic oils"

says

HELEN CARPENTER

well-known beauty expert of NEW CASTLE

"SOAP and water cleanliness is a basic part of all our home beauty treatments. But not any soap will do. We specify Palmolive." So says this beauty shop. And more than 19,800 beauty specialists of distinction, here and abroad, also specify Palmolive.

Unless the skin is thoroughly cleansed twice a day, dirt and dust and cream and make-up gather in the pores of your face and soon become hard, little accumulations which develop into blackheads and pimples. These unsightly blemishes are a sign of neglect on your own part. Use the right soap, use the right cleansing method, and you are taking the best steps toward complexion beauty.

Palmolive is a pure vegetable oil soap. Its color is the natural color of palm and olive oils. The delicate natural odor of these vegetable oils makes the addition of heavy perfumes unnecessary.

This is the Palmolive treatment

With both hands make a smooth lather of Palmolive Soap and warm water. Massage this gently into the skin, both face and throat, for about two minutes. Then rinse off with warm water until you can actually feel the accumulation being swept away. Now, give a final rinse with cold water, even icy water. This is refreshing, and closes the pores, preventing too much dirt and grease from getting underneath the surface of the skin.

Consult your beauty expert

There is only one person truly qualified to advise you, and that is a trained professional beauty expert, who has spent time and study learning how best to care for your good looks. Go to the beauty specialist for all special beauty care, and accept her advice on all matters pertaining to beauty. When she tells you to use Palmolive you have the highest possible authority, and 19,813 such experts, today, advise this vegetable oil soap. You will probably use it for the bath as well as the face. It costs only 10 cents a cake, you know... little enough to pay for a safeguard to beauty.

Council met in the City building this morning and awarded contracts for a power grader and a power sweeper.

The power grader contract was let to the Brinker Supply company of Pittsburgh, at a bid of $3,083.

The Elgin Sweeper company got the contract for the sweeper at a bid of $6,614.

Councilman Burns and Mayor Gillespie voted negatively on the sweeper award.

Bell Company Given Authority In Conduit Case

Measure Passes Council To Give Bell Company Right To Operate Conduit

Council today passed finally an ordinance which gives the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania authority to acquire, purchase, construct, maintain and operate a conduit here.

The company proposes to buy the municipal conduit and the ordinance gives them the legal right to take it over and operate it, after the agreements between the city and company are signed.

Councilman Burns voted negatively as he expressed the belief that the Bell under the ordinance could keep other companies from the conduit system.

A representative of the Bell company explained that the Bell had entered into agreements whereby other companies will be permitted space in the conduit.

Present Pageant At Highland U. P.

P. C. U. By Missionary Society Group

A missionary playlet, "Life in Egypt," was presented by members of the Jean Hill Williamson missionary society of the Highland U. P. church during the regular program of the Young People's Christian Union of the church last night.

The playlet depicted life in the far off Egyptian lands, picturing the hardships which confront missionaries there. The closing act was presented in the Arabic tongue, Dr. C. J. Williamson, pastor of the congregation, is the author of the pageant.

Henry Brenneman presided last night. The playlet was staged under the auspices of the missionary committee of which Russell Tate is chairman.

Ministers Of City Will Meet Tuesday

Members of the New Castle Ministerial association will hold a special meeting Tuesday at 1:45 in the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of making the final arrangements for the mass meeting to be held in celebration of Pentecost, June 3, in the Cathedral.

Bishop Rogers of the Episcopal church of Cleveland will be the speaker of the evening. Bishop Rogers was international exchange preacher of the Episcopal church during 1929 and has toured England and continental Europe, preaching in the great centers of the old world and was a most suitable choice to speak at the world wide celebration of the 1900th anniversary of Pentecost.

Naval Officers Attack Treaty

Naval Officers Attack London Treaty As "Being Almost Disaster"

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 26. — The Navy's heaviest artillery was trained on the London Naval Treaty today, while Republican leaders decided that the pact should be ratified by the senate before adjournment.

Admiral Charles F. Hughes, chief of operations, Rear Admiral William H. Huff, and others before the Foreign Relations Committee roundly condemned the agreement for arms limitations as unfair to the United States.

"In my opinion," Huff said, "the treaty could be a disaster."

"We have given up our right to build the ships we need. We have abandoned the 5-5-3 ratio. We have surrendered the principle of no replacement in 1936. We did not press hard as we might have for actual parity. We gave up our superiority in destroyers. We gave Japan parity in submarines."

"Gentlemen, I have studied this treaty to determine what we get in return for all this—and I do not find anything."

"We get nothing, Admiral?" inquired Senator Reed (R) of Pennsylvania.

"Very little."

"But you said at first we got nothing."

THE QUESTION BOX

CENTRAL PRESS WASHINGTON BUREAU

Answers to questions of information and fact can be obtained by writing to Central Press Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C., and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. No answers will be given to marital, medical or legal questions.

As the vacation season approaches, many queries are being made in regard to seeing Washington quickly. The questions probably are prompted by advertisements of one and two-day excursions. Much can be seen in Washington in a day. One should not miss the capitol, the Congressional Library, the White House, Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument and many other places. In order to answer these queries completely, and to guide visitors to the largest number of places in a short time, Charles P. Stewart, Central Press' Washington writer, has prepared an illustrated pamphlet, entitled, "Seeing Washington," giving a large amount of information concerning the National Capital and outlining a single day's tour.

This pamphlet may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin (to cover cost of publishing), and a large stamped, addressed envelope, to Central Press Washington Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C.

What is the college of cardinals?

The college of cardinals is the senate of the Roman Catholic church. It advises the pope and elects his successor. It is composed of 70 members of whom six are cardinal-bishops, 50 are cardinal-priests and 14 are cardinal-deacons.

What is the standard gauge of railways in this country and Europe?

The standard gauge of railways in the United States, Great Britain, Canada, France, Germany, Austria, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Hungary, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden and European Turkey is 4 feet 8 1/2 inches.

When was tobacco first raised in Connecticut?

Connecticut raised its first tobacco in the middle part of the seventeenth century, probably between the years 1640 and 1650. Its cultivation was started because of a law restricting the use of tobacco to that grown in the colony.

How much would it cost to remove all grade crossings?

It is estimated that it would cost about $20,000,000 to do that. A constant effort is being made, however, to remove the worst ones, and all new roads are being constructed with the thought in mind of avoiding the necessity of grade crossings.

(Note: The following pamphlets may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin and a large stamped, self-addressed envelope for each, to Central Press Washington Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C.: "Who's Who in Hollywood" and Charles P. Stewart's treatise on "Our Government.")

Alleged Blackmailer In Chicago Killed By Gangster Guns

(International News Service) CHICAGO, May 26.—A revolver containing six exploded cartridges was the only tangible bit of evidence police held today in their hunt for two gunmen who last night shot and killed Peter Plescia, reputed blackmailer and supposed member of the Aiello gang.

Leaving a parked car, the two killers approached Plescia, emptied their revolvers into his body and then fled in their automobile. One gunman dropped his revolver in the flight. The victim had been active in the alcohol peddling business according to police, and it is believed he encroached upon the territory of some rival. Besides his other activities the dead man was supposed to run an auto livery service. Police are also considering the theory that his livery business became involved in some labor racket.

Two Killed Through Rioting In India

(International News Service) LONDON, May 26.—Two persons were killed and scores injured in communal rioting today between striking dock workers and imported strike-breakers in Rangoon, Burma, according to Central News dispatches received here.

Police repeatedly charged the rioters, wielding their batons in an effort to break up the heavy street fighting which became general in the water front section.

Daye Sisters Represent California At Circus

California will be represented on John Robinson's Circus this year by the Daye Sisters, June and Mae. These Sunkist beauties will form part of the gorgeous aerial ballet, which will be staged in a manner befitting the biggest Broadway musical productions. The Daye Sisters are post-graduates in aerial calisthenics and they are certain to draw attention from the patrons by their daring deeds, grace and beauty.

John Robinson's Circus comes with many new features and 2 exhibitions will be staged on May 31 afternoon and night. The Hollis Family, Reno McCree Troupe and Rudy Rudynoff Riders will look after the riding honors while the Flying Floys, Flying Hills and the Walter Neiss Troupe will work high in the tent. The Floys and Hills are flyers of exceptional ability, while the Neiss Troupe, a direct importation from Europe, is the best of high wire acts. There will be many other acts of international reputation on the 1930 program, which is said to be the best in the history of the world's pioneer circus.

Dry Referendum At Dime A Vote Flops In Chicago

Solicitors Don't Care For Proposition And Wreck Offices Of Promoter

CHICAGO, May 26.—The scheme of W. J. Lawlers to see whether America is wet or dry was a perfectly legal business.

Not only that, it was an actual public benefit, lamented Lawlers today.

The business came to grief, smashed on the rocks, caused a first class riot and brought out the police in Chicago, said Lawlers, all because Chicagoans are too suspicious.

Lawlers, who thought up and organized the American Referendum association at his home in Sacramento, Calif., said he established offices in most of the large American cities.

"And then I decided we'd better invade Chicago," he said. "The prohibition question here is very important, they told me, and I figured we'd get a lot of votes in your beautiful city."

So Lawlers rented a large suite in a dignified skyscraper and equipped it with plenty of stenographers and adding machines. He then inserted an advertisement in the newspapers.

The advertisement was unassuming. It asked merely for solicitors and promised them excellent pay.

Next morning 300 incipient solicitors trooped into the skyscraper, jammed the elevator and crowded into the offices of the association. Business looked good.

"My proposition, gentlemen, is just like this," Lawlers told them in effect. "You go out and get signatures on our prohibition referendum. You charge each signer 10 cents for the privilege of signing, keep six cents for yourselves and turn in to the association four cents to cover the cost of mailing and tabulating and bookkeeping."

It was a straightforward business proposition, but the 300 prospective prohibition pollsters didn't think so. They looked dirty looks at Lawlers. One shouted "racketeer," the others took up the cry and chairs began to sail through the air. Lawlers ducked to safety, while police hurried to the scene. But by the time they arrived the offices were a pretty thorough mess.

The upshot of it all was that the owners of the building evicted the Referendum association, while Lawlers got called in to do some explaining to the district attorney's office.

The district attorney agreed with Lawlers that the poll was legitimate, and that if citizens cared to pay 10 cents for signing his ballots they had a perfect right to do so.

Since the association was organized, said Lawlers, it has obtained 2,500,000 votes, with accompanying dimes, throughout the nation.

Connecticut Plans Ready For Flight To Buenos Aires

(International News Service) HARTFORD, Conn., May 26.—Flight of the plane, K of New Haven, to Buenos Aires, was scheduled to start this afternoon. Fog and rain delayed the hop off yesterday.

The flight plans call for a take-off here with a light load and a refueling in the air shortly after the start. Captain Herbert G. Patridge, in charge of the air voyage, said.

Lieutenant-commander George R. Pond and Lieutenant Garland Peed will pilot the ship on its 7,700 cruise to the Argentine.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

SCHOOLS AGAIN

H. Johnson, Plainfield, New Jersey, has some ideas about school methods. The writer of The Way of the World, let it be said here, got a lot of letters when he opened the question of modern school teaching. You may remember that complaint was made in this column that high school pupils were distressingly short on important information—information about government, people, geography, life. Strange so many come out of high schools knowing as little as they do. Mr. Johnson writes a letter that is worth our reading. Here it is:

"I read with much interest your appeal to fathers and mothers as to what aids our educational system today."

"First allow me to say that I got my education in Sweden (high school and one year in college) and have a girl 16, completing her first year in high school and I have found the things you complain of to be so, both as regards her and other children with whom I come in contact."

"My answer to your query is: Lack of concentration. Pardon me for alluding to it, but you have no doubt heard of the skill and care shown by the Swedish workman, no matter what his chosen profession may be. I was taught to do a thing over and over again until it was done properly. I had this idea drilled into my mind at home and in school. If any number of children didn't know their lessons we had to have it over again the next day. My daughter used to come home from grammar school and complain that the teachers would write something on the black-board and the pupils were expected to copy it in a given time and after that it was rubbed out. Home work was given out the same way; never mind whether the child got only half of it down. Must hurry through with work they had to do that term."

"Now, in your opinion isn't it better for a child to learn to spell ten words properly in half an hour, than to skim over 30 or 40 words in the same period of time? Isn't it better to learn 1,000 facts in a year than to read about 10,000 things, none of which the child can memorize?"

"My daughter is an unusually smart child, inherited that from her mother, but at her age of sixteen knows less of worthwhile facts than I did at ten, due to lack of concentration in the schools. If I'm wrong sue me!"

AS TO BEING UNSELFISH

Speaking of what young people are thinking about and doing, somebody writes the column asking this question: "Are the young people of today cultivating a spirit of unselfishness?" Are they willing to forego any pleasure to accommodate someone else? Have they respect for their parents? And do parents respect their children when they allow them to be pert and saucy? There is a certain respect due the child, and no parent should allow his child to forget that in being respectful to his parents he is being so to himself."

Ten Known Dead In India Riots

Ten Are Killed, Injured List Is Over 300 As Result Of Salt Depot Riots

STREET FIGHTING PROVES SERIOUS

(International News Service)
LONDON, May 26.—Violence broke out anew in India today, with communal rioting in Rangoon taking a toll of at least ten dead and 300 injured, while hundreds of others were hurt in attempted new raids on the government salt depots in various Indian centers.

The Rangoon clash, according to a Central News dispatch from that city, resulted from an attempt by authorities to halt the serious dock workers' strike by the importation of strike breakers.

Street fighting occurred all along the waterfront, and police were helpless in their efforts to preserve some semblance of order. Time after time they charged the rioting groups with drawn batons. Many of the injured are in a serious condition.

Scores were injured when a band of nationalists attempted a new raid on the Wadala salt pans. The raiders, numbering several thousands, were driven back by police after a strenuous battle. More than 100 were arrested.

Two were killed in communal rioting at Deca, Bengal, during which numerous shops were looted. Twenty were injured in an outbreak of violence at Amritsar.

Twenty persons, mostly women and children, were injured by a bomb explosion at Amritsar which occurred in a crowd at a religious fair.

Genkinger Submits Sidewalk Ordinances

Two ordinances were introduced today by Councilman Genkinger directing property owners to construct sidewalks in Chart street between Moravia and Morris streets and in Miller avenue between South Jefferson and Morris streets.

For a Saniseptic Douche Syringe and a 50c jar of Saniseptic Powder, the non-poisonous douche powder. The Saniseptic Syringe is a well made syringe, heavy ribbed 8-ounce bulb, balloon spray tip. Saniseptic Powder dissolved in warm water makes a non-caustic solution that is an effective antiseptic with a pleasing odor. Really a $3.00 value.

Peter's Adventures

SOMEBODY TO BE AFRAID OF
Peter chuckled to hear Great Water Beetle muttering to himself. Evidently for once in his life at least, the Despot of the Pool was not sure his eyes had not deceived him. Slowly he paddled along, peering this way and looking for the strange object he thought he had spied in the water and now could not find a sign of Peter's cap was drying off in the sun upon the bank. In fact Great Water Beetle was so upset that he would have passed the place where Peter stood, had not the boy halted him.

"Good work, Great Water Beetle," cried Peter. "You've kept your word and now I'll come on out from under cover."

When Great Water Beetle stepped out and showed himself the Great Water Beetle almost sank from sheer amazement.

"My goodness me," gasped that fellow. "Never in all my born days did I ever see such a little human! I didn't know they grew that way. I say, old fellow, if I had seen you I might not have obeyed your commands so quickly. Why, you're nothing to be afraid of."

"Don't be too sure!" Peter made his voice sound as loud and as fierce as he could. "I can be mighty dangerous when my temper is up. Big or little, I am a Two-Legs and that is something for every insect to think about. If I couldn't beat you in fair fight, I might call upon my friends and then you'd be sorry. What chance would you have if a crowd of my folks started to make things hot for you here in the pool?"

Great Water Beetle shuddered. "You wouldn't do such an unfair thing as that, would you?" gasped he. "And anyway what for? I've no hurt you, have I?"

"No!" said Peter and added quickly. "And I don't intend you shall ever have a chance to. Come on now, don't quarrel. Let's be friends!"

Next: "Safe in a Suit of Armor."

During the trial in Hertford, England, recently, Judge Crawford told a railway man's widow who had spent $155.50 on her husband's funeral that it was "monstrous" to spend one-tenth of her capital in this way.

Correct this sentence: "How sweet of you always to remember our anniversary," said the wife, "When I never drop a hint."

Prayer In Congress

The chaplain, Rev. ZeBarney T. Phillips, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O merciful God, who alone canst fill our life with holy purpose, at the beginning of this new day we beseech Thee to be with us through all its hours.

If there be in our hearts any ignominious purpose or injurious design remove it, that the sense of our intimacy with Thee may fill us with a deep and saving self-respect, with the happiness of heart which comes to those who scorn to wear the vestment of hypocrisy. Give us the courage to think brave thoughts, to speak brave words, to do brave deeds; overshadow us with Thy discernment, that we may grow in moral thoughtfulness, learning the lessons of each stage of life, till at last our mind shall gently rise into that sovereign rest of Thine above. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Civil War General Is Convalescing

(International News Service)
BOSTON, May 26.—There is a ninety-four year old patient in Phillips House here today who is being treated for internal disorder. His name is General Adelbert Ames, the oldest West Point graduate and only surviving Civil War general.

Dear Brother Lion—
As is our custom each year, during Memorial Week, we will be hosts to the Civil War veterans tomorrow. Ex-Sheriff Samuel Bell, who has just arrived by aeroplane from California to attend the G. A. R. convention, will be a special guest.

Dr. C. B. Wingerd, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will deliver the address.

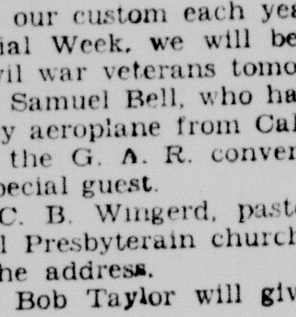

Lion Bob Taylor will give a vocal solo.

King Lion Marvin asks that you be present to welcome the veterans on another Memorial Day observance. It is your patriotic duty to come to this meeting.

DON'T FORGET TO CAST YOUR BALLOT.

Very truly yours,

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALUARD

Has a woman who is about to die the right to demand of her husband the promise never to marry again as long as he lives?

If the man promises, is he in honor bound to keep that promise? If in her last moments it gives comfort to the selfish wife who asks such a sacrifice, even if he knows that perhaps he might not keep it?

A man in Tulsa, Oklahoma, wants to know and I'm mighty glad he put the question. I want to know too. Personally I think an unselfish wife will wish for just one thing when she dies, and that is that her husband will find happiness. To tie those in life with promises of this kind is a rank injustice. Mr. Tulsa wants to know if that kind of a promise is a lie if a man doesn't keep it.

I would say no, it isn't. Giving comfort to a sick woman is unselfish and it matters little how you give, particularly when she is about to leave this earth forever. Anything you can do to ease her pain and grief at leaving you is RIGHT.

After she has returned to the earth and is past suffering I think such a promise should be discarded just as the man discards the other things that are no longer of any use to her.

"Such a promise," says Mr. Tulsa, is usually made to the wife, as the man controls such things in his will if he has that sort of mean disposition. Take the case of Thomas Jefferson, who courted many girls before he met the rich widow who married him. After her death he again had an eye for a pretty woman, but was not free to marry her. Oh no. His jealous wife in dying, feared that he might be no more loyal to memory of his first wife than she had been to that of her first husband, and she made him promise never to marry again. There came a time when he almost broke his promise but he could not lie to the dead, he said. Some thought that was noble, and others thought it despicable. He caused much sorrow and suffering by keeping the promise.

"One cannot blame a sick person for exacting such a selfish promise. The blame is rather on the living who let the dead rule, and who feel that keeping such a promise is necessary."

What are your ideas on this subject? I have known many who let such promises ruin their lives. Are they to be commended? Why? (Write me King Features, 235 E. 45 St. N. Y. City). Copyright 1930 Premier Syndicate, Inc.

The men were returning to their homes at White Crossing, near here, when they were caught in a blinding rainstorm and drove into the path of an approaching train on the New York, Ontario & Western railroad. They were Michael Kiklus, 35; Stanley Chizul, 36, and Andrew Zagda, 25.

Each was married and the father of several children. The men had been employed at an Archbald mine and has returned there Saturday night for their pay, and spent the evening in Simpson.

Zagda's body was carried almost 300 feet from the scene of the crash and was not found until several hours later.

Pennsylvania Is Third In Number Of Good Airports

New Castle Has One In Accredited List Of 87 In State

(Special to The News) WASHINGTON, May 26.—Pennsylvania ranks third of the forty-eight states in the number of landing fields and airports officially recognized by the department of Commerce as being marked and reserved for flying activities, according to the department's registry of landing fields and airports made public here today.

The registry names and locates nearly 1,600 such fields and ports, 87 of which are in Pennsylvania. California stands first with 163 and Texas second with 106, the Keystone State coming third.

New Castle is credited in the new registry with having one of the official recognized airports under the name of "New Castle Airport," which is described by the publication as a commercial field.

Rev. Arthur French, Sharpsburg, Is Speaker; Pastors, Chorus Assist

A stirring sermon delivered by the Rev. Arthur E. French, of Sharpsburg, marked the baccalaureate service for this year's graduating class of the North Beaver Township high school, held last night at Mt. Jackson. Five hundred townspeople and students attended.

Assisting Rev. French were the Rev. George Neile, pastor of the Bethel U. P. church, who offered a prayer and the Rev. Ross Haverfield, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, who gave the invocation.

A special musical number, entitled "Before the Shrine," was sung during the service by the junior and sophomore class chorus.

Commencement exercises for the graduates will be held in the same auditorium on Thursday, May 29 at 8:15 p. m.

Gaston Post Leads District

Has Greatest Membership In Its History At The Present Time

Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343, American Legion, according to the Bulletin just issued by the Pennsylvania Department of the Legion, is the largest post in its class, that of posts having a membership from 251 to 300, in the state of Pennsylvania.

The post has been the leader in this division and the 26th congressional district all this year, with a brief period of one week when the Beaver Falls Post exceeded the local post by a few members.

The post is now enjoying one of the largest memberships in its history and the interesting and pleasing fact is that its membership is now constantly on the increase. The present membership is now nearly five hundred and may possibly reach that number in the next few weeks.

Not only is the post increasing in membership, but it is increasing in activity and is fast becoming one of the outstanding posts of the American Legion in the entire state of Pennsylvania.

Fifteen Cities Send Delegates

Letter Carriers Meet In Sessions Here On Saturday Night

TO MEET IN FALL
AT INDIANA, PA

Fifteen cities had delegations of letter carriers present for the annual conference of the Northwestern Pennsylvania District, Pennsylvania Association of Letter Carriers, which met in session here for nearly four hours on Saturday evening.

Approximately 100 carriers from nearby and distant points came to attend the meeting held in Dancesland on Neshannock avenue. Before adjournment Saturday night the delegates selected Indiana as their meeting place next fall, and named the following officers to serve the ensuing year: C. F. Fitch, Greenville, president; Fred C. Kuehn, New Castle, vice president; J. J. Robinson, Johnsonburg, secretary; and John Quay, Meadville, treasurer.

May Meet Twice Yearly

In voting to meet at Indiana next fall, the district association departed from their usual custom of assembling but once each year. Hereafter it is probable sessions will be held both in the spring and fall. The wives of the letter men will also be invited to future gatherings, it was decided.

It was not until almost 8:30 p. m. Saturday that President C. Russell, of Erie, struck the gavel which marked the formal opening of the session. Preceding this act the carriers had been entertained with banjo music furnished by the Harmony Boys, and with a specially dance by Rose Tuscano. Clifford Roberts, president of New Castle Branch No. 12, had extended the greetings from his organization, and had introduced the Hon. Fred L. Rantz, president of The News, who welcomed them in behalf of the city.

The district secretary, J. J. Robinson, of Johnsonburg, was introduced next by Mr. Russell. Mr. Robinson took the roll call immediately, each delegate standing as their city was called. The complete report showed carriers present from Bradford, Butler, Erie, Franklin, Greenville, Grove City, Indiana, Johnsonburg, Kittanning, Meadville, New Wilmington, Oil

City and Sharon as well as New Castle.

Meadville Takes Honors

The Meadville branch took honors for having the largest delegation present. They were represented 100 per cent, as every one of their 14 carriers were in attendance. Butler sent nine while Erie and Indiana both had seven present.

Minutes of the June 22, 1929 meeting of the carriers at Meadville, read by Mr. Robinson, were approved by the association.

Seated on the speaking platform with President Russell, were John Quay, Meadville, treasurer of the district organization; John J. A. Cusick, Duquesne, secretary of the Southwestern Pennsylvania district; John J. Scully, Pittsburgh, veteran member of the Southwest district association; Harry J. Kinzler, Pittsburgh, first state vice president; William J. Gorman, Brooklyn, N. Y., member of the national executive committee and president of Brooklyn Branch 41, and Chris J. Halberstadt, president of the Pennsylvania state association.

President Russell called upon Mr. Quay, Mr. Cusick and Mr. Scully at the outset of the program for remarks and each responded briefly. Mr. Quay also an honorary national state vice president told last year's national convention at Minneapolis; Cusick related the work of the Southwest district, while Scully urged the carriers to give their full support to the organization, both locally and in the district and state.

First State Vice President H. J. Kinzler was then presented by Mr. Russell. In a summary fashion, he cited the rapid growth of the organization and pointed out that few other labor organizations are winning more concessions than the organized carriers, due entirely to the support which carrier gives his own branch. Each must put his shoulder to the wheel if the good work is to be continued, he declared in closing.

State President Chris Halberstadt, known and revered by every carrier was the next speaker. The New Castle branch and district organization were highly congratulated for their good work just as soon as he began to speak.

It is commendable when our superior officers attend these meetings, he asserted. Rot. Postmaster E. W. Crawford and his assistant, J. G. Leslie, are present tonight and we welcome them. It shows that they have an interest in what we do.

State President

The state president then went on to inform the carriers that a total of 300 branches are now functioning throughout the state, under competent and sincere leadership. He pointed out that the National Association of Letter Carriers is one of the strongest organizations in the entire United States if it sees fit to wield its power, adding that the Pennsylvania association is one of the essential parts of it.

President Halberstadt spoke at length on the next state convention, which meets next Labor Day in Erie. Plans are going forward to have carriers from every branch throughout the state in attendance that day. He urged the Northwest District to boost it.

National Committeeman William Gorman, from Brooklyn, N. Y., was the final speaker. As he was introduced the carriers rose to their feet as a mark of respect and an echo of applause attested to the fact that Gorman is a favorite of the postmen.

I'm glad to be here with you tonight, he said, to be with the good brothers of the Northwest District in their annual meeting. I consider it an honor in being invited to speak.

The national leader went on to assert that perhaps in no other organization is the spirit of fraternity more paramount than in the N. A. L. C. There are no barriers, no division because of race, and we are all brothers working together in the service of Uncle Sam.

Mr. Gorman went on to trace the efforts being made by the national organization in Washington, in its attempt to have legislation considered. He mentioned the progress being made for the pension age reduction as well as the bill calling for an increase in wages. He assured the carriers of favorable news within the next month or so.

When Mr. Gorman had finished the delegates named a conference site for next fall and elected officers to serve for one year. Indiana and Greenville both extended invitations for the meeting, but Greenville later withdrew in favor of Indiana. The meeting in the fall will be held near the farm of Congressman Clyde Kelly, champion of the carriers in the House of Representatives.

Installation of officers marked the closing act, with National Committeeman Gorman officiating.

A buffet lunch was served immediately following the ceremonies by a committee of New Castle carriers, headed by John Wilson.

Officers of the New Castle Branch, host to the visiting carriers Saturday night, are as follows: President Clifford Roberts; vice president, Walker Leslie; secretary, Fred Kuehn and treasurer, Frank Krepps.

Policeman And One Other Wounded In Gunplay At Chicago

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 26.—Two men, one a policeman, were shot and seriously wounded today in a gun battle with a bandit in a south side soft drink parlor.

The shooting affray followed an attempt by Policeman Joseph Poplasky to eject several hoodlums from a dance hall. One of the rioters pursued Poplasky to the soft drink parlor and there disarmed him and shot him three times. A patron who came to the officer's rescue was likewise shot down before the man escaped.

Auto And Trolley Crash, Two Killed

Two Men In Auto Killed Instantly As Auto Crashes Into Trolley

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—Two men were killed instantly today when an auto crashed headon into a trolley car near Ridge avenue and School Lane. The victims were identified as James Monaghan, 28, and John Carey, 32, both of this city.

The men were driving at a fast pace when they turned a sharp curve on School Lane and collided with the approaching trolley before they were able to stop, police said.

George Slusher, 46, operator of the street car, was arrested pending a further investigation into the tragedy.

EQUITY HEARING IN CASCADE PARK CASE

Equity case of E. Don McKibben against Graham Pierce will be heard at the court house before Judge Chambers tomorrow. The case is one in which McKibben entered into an agreement with Pierce under which the latter was to get a lease on the dancing pavilion at Cascade park from the Pennsylvania-Electric company in November, 1925. McKibben alleges that he had an agreement with Pierce by which each was to pay half the expenses and share equally in the proceeds. McKibben is claiming that there is a balance due him under the agreement.

Congressional Leaders Seek To Untangle Chaos In Radio Broadcasting

Campaign Launched To Make Federal Radio Commission
Supreme Arbiters

Recent Supreme Court Decision Will Put Broadcasting In Serious
"Jam"

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, May 26.—Declaring the nation-wide system of radio broadcasting will be plunged into chaos by a recent supreme court decision, congressional leaders in radio legislation today launched a campaign to make the Federal Radio commission the supreme arbiter of radio.

The situation was precipitated through the successful fight by the General Electric company to upset the commission's order requiring its powerful "WGY" station at Schenectady, N. Y., to divide time with the company's Oakland, Calif. station.

The commission's order was set aside by the district of Columbia court of appeals, acting in the capacity of a supreme court of radio to review the findings of fact of the Radio commission.

The government appeal to the Supreme court, which decided that when Congress passed the radio act of 1927 it did just what the General Electric company claimed—made the court of appeals the final arbiter of the facts involved in radio broadcasting controversies.

Although the supreme court said the intention of Congress was plain, Rep. Lehlbach (R.) of New Jersey, acting chairman of the House Merchant Marine committee, which framed the radio act, says the intention of Congress was just opposite.

So Lehlbach has introduced an amendment stripping the court of appeals of its power to review facts and limiting appeals to questions of law. The House Merchant Marine committee has also added this proposal as a "rider" to a Senate bill.

"The radio commission should be the arbiter of facts as to grants of power, time and wave lengths," said Lehlbach. "That question cannot be determined by isolated cases, but the whole nation-wide situation must be taken into consideration."

"If the court of appeals is to have power to set aside the commission decisions one by one, the whole system will be affected."

"So we propose that only questions of law be made appealable." There are now 56 appeals from the Radio commission pending in the court of appeals, according to Lehlbach. If the court granted half of them, the present broadcasting set-up would be seriously affected.

Judge Will Give
Mrs. Mumbulo Her Sentence Today

Mrs. Edna Mumbulo, Convicted
Of Causing Death Of Girl
Will Get Stiff Term

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., May 26.—Mrs. Edna Mumbulo, convicted of second degree murder in connection with the burning to death of her 11-year-old stepdaughter, Hilda, was to be sentenced by Judge W. E. Hirt today.

A second degree murder conviction in Pennsylvania carries a maximum sentence of 10 to 20 years in prison.

The state charged that Mrs. Mumbulo and her husband, Ralph, father of the girl, conspired to kill the girl to share a legacy left the little victim by her mother. Mrs. Mumbulo poured flaming gasoline on the girl while she lay asleep, the state contended.

Mrs. Mumbulo's defense was based on her claim that fire broke out while she was cleaning garments with gasoline and that Hilda was burned when her stepmother attempted to throw the gasoline container out of a window.

Former Resident

She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Margaret Williams, Mrs. Charlotte Davis, Mrs. Elizabeth Grant, Mrs. May Bell, Abbie Hopkins and two sons, Thomas and George, all of Aliquippa.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 P. M. from the residence in Aliquippa.

New Anti-Pain Oil Works Wonders

Takes the Crick Out of Your Neck,
The sharp shooting pains out of the shoulders—in a few minutes.

This new discovery is a combination of eucalyptus together with essential oils, turpentine-Camphor, Capsicum and other valuable ingredients that is now being offered the public under the name of "Anti-Pain Oil," formerly known as Snake Oil. It has proved to be an effective, agreeable remedy for aches and pains, chest colds, flu, coughs, etc. Thousands of sufferers are now being relieved by this new penetrating oil liniment.

For rheumatic pains, neuralgia, crick in the neck, sharp shooting pains in the shoulder, stiff joints and sore muscles, apply freely to affected parts. The oil quickly penetrates, bringing relief almost like magic. For chest colds, flu and sore throat, apply freely to affected parts, well greased with vaseline or lard. For coughs or hoarseness take ten drops on a lump of sugar.

Don't continue to suffer longer. Use this new and improved remedy, perfected after years of research and experimental work, instead of poisonous habit forming drugs. You will then know what it means to be free from pain.

Refuse imitations. Nothing like this new Anti-Pain Oil formerly known as Snake Oil. Special introductory generous size bottle for 70c. Now being sold and introduced by Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc.

May Day Pageant Most Successful

Miss Margaret Crooks Is May Queen At Westminster

EXCELLENT PROGRAM GIVEN SATURDAY

Before a vast throng of spectators assembled on the college athletic field, Miss Margaret Crooks, of Brookline, Mass., was crowned Queen of the May at the annual May Day pageant of Westminster college at New Wilmington, held on Saturday afternoon.

As in almost every previous year, Old Man Weather did everything he could to cap with success the efforts of Miss Mary C. McConagha, director of the exercises, and the 200 students who made up the cast.

Miss Ruth Lewis, of this city and the retiring queen crowned Miss Crooks at the conclusion of the well-rehearsed pageant depicting man's conquest of insects and diseases by scientific knowledge. The new queen symbolized science in the exhibition.

The entire pageant was written by members of the Westminster class in pageantry.

Paving Contract Case Arguments Up During Week

Attorney Wylie McCaslin To Represent City Before State Court

Council today at the suggestion of Solicitor White directed Attorney Wylie McCaslin to represent the city in the case of W. Leslie Wilson vs. Woods & Golder and the city of New Castle growing out of the award to the Woods & Golder Company for the repaving of Butler avenue, Grant street and Croton avenue.

Paper books containing the case in court here have been presented and Attorney McCaslin will make the argument. The appeal is to be heard by the supreme court of Pennsylvania sitting at Harrisburg this week. It is not known on what day the case will come up. Attorney McCaslin represents the firm and will leave for Harrisburg tonight. He will not receive compensation from the city.

Legion Post To Elect Delegates

Will Also Consider A Number Of Matters Of Importance

Meeting of Perry S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion to be held Tuesday night at the Legion Home, will be of unusual importance to the membership.

At this time, the election of delegates from the post to the state convention, which will be held at Harrisburg during the month of August, will take place.

Another important matter that will be up for consideration will be the question of whether or not the membership of the legion desires to discontinue the regular meetings during the months of June, July and August.

City To Enter Opening Agreement

Mercer Street To Be Opened Between Glenmore And Hillcrest Avenue

Councilman Stanley Treser today notified colleagues in session at the city hall that Neshannock township supervisors desired an agreement with the city whereby North Mercer street between Hillcrest avenue and Glenmore boulevard could be opened.

One half of the street is situated in the township and the other in the city. The work would not cost more than $500, supervisors told him.

Colleagues ordered an agreement written and the work done. It will, when done provide a route north to the city line.

Defeated Assembly Candidate Requests Votes Be Recounted

(International News Service) GREENSBURG, Pa., May 26.—Recount of ballots cast in three precincts in the third district of Westmoreland county for two Republican legislative candidates, Roger Richards, Monessen, and J. Regis Brune, Scottsdale, was ordered by court today.

Brune defeated Richards by five votes.

In a petition presented by friends of Richards the claim was made that "an act of fraud or error has been committed, although it is not shown on the general vote returns." The petitioners believe a greater number of votes were cast for Richards than were shown on the return sheets for the second precinct of the first ward, Monessen, and the third ward, Scottsdale.

Police Raid Poker Game Early Sunday

Shortly before two o'clock Sunday morning Lieutenant of Police Peter Hillers, County Detective H. ## SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Mock Court Trial
Presented Sunday
In Ward Church

Fine Attendance At Union Service; Other News Notes Of Seventh Ward

A fine attendance was present at the union church service Sunday evening in the Mahoning Methodist church. The auditorium was filled to capacity, the balconies and Sabbath school partially filled. The congregations of the three protestant churches of the seventh ward cooperating in this union service, the Mahoning Presbyterian, Madison Avenue Christian and Mahoning M. E.

The Anti-saloon league had requested this union service be conducted. The program for the evening was a liquor trial, "Who Killed Earl Wright?" In the mock trial the attorneys for prosecution and defense were taken by two representatives of the Anti-saloon league from Pittsburgh. Other persons taking part in the trial were from the ward. These were, judge, J. M. Bevan; court clerk, H. G. Coates; coroner, W. Greyson Coates; witness, Jack Evans; witness, C. E. Dungan; sheriff, Sam Alexander. The trial was interesting as well as entertaining.

Aside from the mock trial the ministers of the three churches all had a part in the service. Ministers are, Rev. W. W. Sniff, pastor of the Christian church; Rev. D. C. Schnebly, pastor of the Mahoning Presbyterian and Rev. David Daye Sleppy, pastor of the Methodist church.

PROGRAM POSTPONED

Children's Day will not be observed the first Sunday of June in the Madison Avenue Christian church as was previously announced. The observing of the day has been postponed for two weeks. As planned now the program will be given on June 15.

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Another reaction from the trials of Irene Schroeder and Glen Dague has drifted in, this one from a newspaper. One of the boys who was covering the trials for his paper, has presented his expense account, sometimes referred to in the crass terms of the back room as the "swindle sheet."

The Big Boy has looked over the sheet and couldn't prove there was anything wrong. The total for food was all right, so was that for what sleeping he did. But one item caught the eye of the Boss, that for gasoline.

Calling the lad in he said to him, "your expense account is all right as far as I can see, but where under the shining Heavens would you burn so much gasoline?"

And rather sadly the reporter replied, "waiting on the lights to change in New Castle."

Have an old time receipt on the desk today, a receipt for $4.50 covering a subscription to the New Castle Gazette and Lawrence County Democrat, from February 18, 1867 to January 1, 1868.

The paper was modestly described on the receipt as "a political, literary and news journal," printed and published by William S. Black. The terms were two dollars per annum, payable strictly in advance. Two dollars and fifty cents was charged at the expiration of three months.

News travelled slowly in those days and the daily papers were compilations of articles and editorials. Spot news got through in a meagre fashion, and the subscriber got about 8 pages of stuff, much of which would not be used as filler today. The price of a paper in those days was two cents. Today it is three cents, but it isn't the same kind of newspaper. Anywhere up to forty pages of news, features, pictures and advertisements. Through the service of press bureaus, papers are kept informed of the happenings of the world and today's newspaper is just that, a news paper. The old paper was the vehicle through which the proprietor projected his personal opinion.

Another thing on the desk is a couple of packages of "squaw corn," which came from the Dakotas. The colors run to red, blue and brown and the field corn market is going to get flooded this fall. Going to plant the corn in some convenient spot where the crows won't gobble it up and see what can be done with it by personal attention and a lot of labor.

No Change In U. S. Policy On Enforcement

Supreme Court Decision Will Not Affect Prohibition Work

PURCHASERS HAVE NOT BEEN ARRESTED

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—The supreme court decision holding the purchase of liquor not guilty of law violation will not cause any change of policy on the part of the enforcement authorities, it was stated at the treasury today.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Seymour Lowman said that it had always been the policy not to arrest purchasers unless it appeared that they were involved in a conspiracy to violate the law. He explained that the case decided today was instituted in the courts by prosecuting officers to get a final test of the law and to determine exactly what were the rights of the government.

Unofficially the prohibition bureau was understood to be satisfied with the decision. Had the court held the purchaser guilty of violating the federal law, an almost impossible situation would have been brought about from the standpoint of enforcement.

Dancer Will Wed Indian Prince Is Announced Today

Miss Florence, Specialty Dancer With New York Show To Wed Indian Prince

NEW YORK, May 26.—Miss Florence, specialty dancer of "artists and models," will marry the maharajah of Kapurthala, wealthy Indian prince, in July, it was announced today.

The announcement recalled the marriage of Nancy Miller, Seattle beauty, to the former maharajah of Indor several years ago.

The maharajah of Kapurthala will arrive here from Paris shortly, according to the announcement. He is 57. Miss Florence, of European parentage, is 23.

Drop Prosecution Of Penn-Ohio Men

Engineers To Meet And Decide Which Material Best On Repair Work

C. C. Coulthard, superintendent of transportation, Pennsylvania-Ohio railway today appeared before city council, the result of nine employees having been arrested for opening Highland and Meyer avenues where the company desired to make repairs to a street car track switch.

It developed the failure to take out a permit was due to the notice not reaching Coulthard, who said the company would be glad to conform to this law but the real fact cropped out when it developed the company wanted to repair in the way their engineers thought best, but contrary to a city ordinance.

Engineer Miller of the city wants concrete placed beneath the joints and Coulthard's advice from the P-O engineer is that it is an obsolete method and simply a waste of money. He said gravel properly tamped is the up-to-date method and said he would leave the proposition to a meeting of engineers.

Council suggested that Solicitor White drop the prosecution at the aldermanic office of Walter Hamilton and that a meeting of surrounding engineers should be called to determine which is the most efficient way.

Making First Call On New Dial Phone System At P. & O. Company

Immediately after the new automatic telephone exchange of the Penn-Ohio System was put into service Saturday night by Fred L. Rentz, president of the News Company, District Manager L. B. Round put in the first call for Railway Superintendent C. C. Coulthard. The local heads of the electric power company and street railways exchanged felicitations over completion of the important improvement.

Progress in telephonic communication was recorded here Saturday night when Fred L. Rentz, formally opened the new dial system of the Pennsylvania-Ohio Power company building on the public square.

It is the first dial system to be installed in this section and was placed in operation at 9:30 p. m. when Mr. Rentz pulled a cord which automatically cut out the old and cut in the new system.

The formal opening was made in the presence of Pennsylvania-Ohio Power company officials, Mayor Gillespie and councilmen, representatives of the Bell Telephone company which installed the equipment and interested citizens.

Manager Louis B. Round made the first dial call to C. C. Coulthard, superintendent of transportation, railway transportation and the second call came from J. Cooper, Lorrain Avenue.

who reported that a light was not burning.

The equipment and private exchange which now operates 60 telephones is on the third floor of the building in East Washington street. The equipment can take care of 100 telephones.

All offices of the company, substations and outlying offices are equipped with dial telephones and the new system is in operation today employees having been thoroughly instructed in the proper way of using dial phones.

Present at the formal opening Saturday night were:

L. B. Round, district manager, P-O company; C. C. Coulthard, superintendent of transportation, P-O company; C. M. England, assistant district manager, P-O company; E. J. Friedrich, manager lighting sales, P-O company; Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rentz; Mayor William H. Gillespie;

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, May 26.—Governor John S. Fisher today announced a series of appointments and re-appointments to various posts in branches of the State service.

The Governor named S. Frank Williams, Ashland, as clerk of the Schuylkill County courts, succeeding George W. Gearhart, deceased.

John V. McKenna, Ellsworth, was named as a bituminous mine inspector to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Patrick S. Ing.

Re-appointments made by the governor were:

Rev. Charles E. Roth, Reading, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Wernersville State hospital.

Col. Henry D. Paxson, Philadelphia, as a member of the Washington Crossing Park Commission.

John P. Wolfinger, Reading, as a member of the State Aeronautic commission.

Rt. Rev. Thomas C. O'Reilly, Scranton, to the board of trustees of Pennsylvania State Oral School for the deaf.

The governor also re-appointed the following to the board of trustees of Coalale State hospital:

Mrs. Emma L. Spiese, and C. C. Boner, both of Tamaqua; Paul W. Houck, Shenandoah; W. J. Clements and John R. Boyle, both of Coalale and W. J. Hatrick, Mauch Chunk.

The governor named Thomas D. Lewis, Lansford, to fill one of two existing vacancies on the board.

Default Judgment On Bond Granted

Following the presentation of a petition in court this morning in the case of Ruth McGraw against Wilbur R. McGraw, Judge Hildebrand granted judgment in default on the bond of McGraw. This was a case in which he was directed to pay $5 per week for the support of Beryl Edis McGraw, and it was claimed that he had fallen down on the payments, for which he had given bond.

ALL MARTIN On Second, Third, And Fourth Marriages

Here is a sample of the slant some folks have on marriage. It's some correspondence between Miss Fawn Lippincott, heart specialist of the Weekly Slipshorn and a wife that's just wakin' up.

My Dear Miss Lippincott:

When I got out of grade school my folks wuz too tight to send me to a girl's seminary where I'd be out of harm's way so I married a boy friend who hoped to be a lawyer some day. Do you believe in second marriages?

Florine.

My Dear Florine

I don't think so much of even first marriages, but since you have taken the step an' find yourself very unhappy an' have no trade or profession a second, third, fourth or even fifth marriage would be perfectly justified. Women an' girls have just as much right to scout around till they find a congenial moneyed mate, as men have to change stenographers all the time.

Four years in the harness

A young, romantic girl who gets hypnotized by the first soft voiced loafer that comes along is entitled to several more chances. Your life is your own, Florine. If you are hungry an' unhappy an' see girls all around you workin' an' makin' money an' dressin' 'emself free yourself in all haste an' try again. All too often I meet pale, haggard young wives limp' along carrin' one baby an' draggin' along while the husbands walk a few paces ahead an' try to act they wuzn' with 'em young mothers who's been to the doctors, or have tried to be fitted at a 10 cent store optical counter, young, bent mothers wearin' 25 cent heads, fabroid snake skin pumps, print dresses, an' wastful expressions. I notice so many young wives with sticky lookin' little kids mopin' along like they wuz on their way to Siberia girls who've married in their teens when they should have been penned up at Ward Belmont, St. Mary's-o'-the-Woods Smiths, or some other girl colony. Housepein's frightful under the most favorable circumstances, but what must it be where the husband is o' slender means an' must keep dressed up to hold his position. If you marry in the wage earin' class marry so you kin wear the clothes. No wonder the average wife, when she does git a little breathin' spell, immediately begins to reflect on what might have been. It allus makes me rave when I hear some old washed out wife with a fern as big as a Christmas tree an' no offsprings, pan second marriages an' tell how sweetly she tided through the early years of her married life. By all means cut loose an' shop around Florine. A contractor has to give bond that he'll go through with his agreement an' so should the male o' the species before they inveigle an' bamboozle sweet, confidin' girls out o' good homes an' jobs. All's well Good-bye.

Vets Aid Tribute To Plaingrove Vet

Attend Services At Plaingrove U.
P. Church Sunday Morning In Body

Members of the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars joined in the services held Sunday morning by Rev. Nathan McClung of the Plaingrove U. P. church, as a memorial to the Civil and World War dead of those who served from the Plaingrove community.

Thomas Magee, the sole surviving Civil War veteran of the Plaingrove community was present at the services, and tribute was paid to him during the service.

Rev. McClung preached an eloquent sermon, extolling the heroism of the veterans of all the U. S. Wars, none of which, he proudly stated were wars of conquest or aggression. He stated that U. S. veterans were unanimous in denouncing the cruelty of war and were strong for peace, but that they were firm in their decision that bolshevism and anarchism has no place in this country.

Rev. McClung is chaplain of the Harry L. McBride Post and enjoys the distinction of being one of the two survivors of any of the U. S. Wars residing in Plaingrove. Mr. Magee, Civil War Veteran, being the other.

The Parent Problem By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Little Tot Can Be Told About Death

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
You will remember that a little while ago I raised the question about how much we should attempt to shield our children from the sorrowful and morbid, and confessed that I sometimes feared that my children had become perhaps, too stoical; and I wondered whether they would prove to be as sympathetic toward others' sorrows as they should.

A number of readers wrote me their opinions. Here is a response from a kind grandmother: "Although my children are all grown and my precious grandchildren live so far away from me that I would have no opportunity to work out your most excellent theories and follow your advice, I have always since your articles first appeared, found them most interesting and have often wished to avail myself of your invitation to voice my opinions. Your last one, however, drove me to pen and paper.

"Yes, there is a happy medium. I don't pretend to say I found it, but I do know that it is good for children to know about sorrow, of any kind. There is nothing gruesome about death in itself. A little child of four or five can be made to understand. When my son lay in his coffin, I showed my little nephew some locust shells and told him how the insects had left them and were alive and beautiful somewhere else, though we did not see them. Just so our dear J. had left this body and was in heaven, and we would all see him some day.

"You will remember, of course, the attitude of the ancient Greeks in regard to viewing sorrow. They presented their tragedies to their public because they believed the sight of grief, sorrow and death, even though only enacted on the stage, to be purifying or cleansing. They had a word for its effect "Kathartie" from which I think we have our word "cathartic."

"A mother of my acquaintance lost her husband recently and soon after, suddenly burst out crying, without saying anything. When she ceased, she said to her little five-year-old girl, 'That was foolish of mother to cry like that,' and the child said, 'Why, I think anybody would cry when her husband is dead.' The child was wiser than the well-meaning mother.

"Unless your two older children have some great personal sorrow to wake them, they are not likely to become very tender hearted in this hard-boiled age."

I sincerely thank you. I am always grateful for the opinions and advice of any one who is kind enough to send them. I read them carefully and thoughtfully, though it takes me many hours to go through all of them.

Please, dear readers, do not feel you must write on fancy paper or have a typewriter. Write on anything, with anything. Don't worry about your spelling and your grammar. Just write large and legibly.

Heavy Frost Is Reported Today

Considerable Damage Is Believed To Have Been Done To Plants And Flowers

Heavy frost was reported in several sections of the county last night, when the temperature dropped to the freezing point. The official temperature at the U. S. Weather Observation station was 32 degrees, the observer reported this morning.

According to F. E. Welker, who operates a big truck garden on the Harbor road, a heavy frost was noted at his place, which he believes did considerable damage, the full extent of which cannot be determined until late in the day when the sun comes out real warm.

Mr. Welker stated that he received word from George Ohles of near Youngstown that frost killed off almost all the new vegetation and plants in that section of Ohio.

The fact that a breeze was blowing through part of the night will have a tendency to cut down the damage here. Weather Observer Johnson believes, although he felt that some damage would result.

The country has now definitely shifted its straw from votes to hats.—The Terre Haute Star.

TRAMPLING ART FOR PROFITS
FOR all its virtues, modern industrialism can run amuck under the spur of greed for profits. Witness, the music threatening the Art of Music.

300 musicians in Hollywood supply all the "music" offered in thousands of theatres. Can such a tiny reservoir of talent nurture artistic progress?

The true function of the machine is to increase the value of the product fed into it—not to debase it. Therefore mechanical music, as a substitute for Living Music, is a spurious form of progress—like a loom converting good wool into shoddy.

The grind organ, however operated, is a grind organ still. For music is an emotional art, a form of social intercourse, and hence dependent upon human contact.

Who profits by the elimination of genuine music from the theatre? Not

Knights Templar Open 77th Annual Conclave At Easton With Religious Service

(International News Service)
EASTON, May 26.—The 77th annual conclave of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania was opened in Easton last night with a religious service in the St. John's Lutheran church, where the sermon was preached by Rev. Sir Leon K. William, D. D. of Wilkes-Barre, Grand Prelate of the Grand Commandery. The visiting knights were escorted to the church by the band of the Easton Commandery, which also gave a concert in Centre Square.

From 10 o'clock this morning until midnight a busy program has been arranged for the visitors. A sight-seeing trip for the wives of the delegates opened the day's activities, this being followed by a luncheon to the ladies by Mrs. James H. Chickering, of Oil City, wife of the acting grand commander.

This afternoon a sight seeing trip will be taken to the Delaware Gap, a tea at Eddyside following.

This evening, at 7 o'clock, a band concert will be given in Centre Square by the Imperial Tequeques, of Williamsport. The reception by the acting grand commander at the Hotel Easton will take place at 9 o'clock. Other receptions, this evening, will be the Diet Le Veut Commandery, No. 45, of Wilkes-Barre; by the Hugh De Payens Commandery of Easton; by the Talbot Commandery No. 90, of Bethlehem, and by the De Clay Commandery, of Washington, N. Chest Drive Officials Feel Sure That Ellwood Will Win Out This Year
As Usual

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—The ninth annual Community Chest drive of Ellwood City was concluded Saturday with the coveted goal of $37,500 almost reached. The donations fell behind just $700 from the grand total, and a little overtime work is being done today by the solicitors in an effort to make up this deficit.

The officials and collectors have worked hard all week and H. N. Wasser as general chairman and J. J.
McLaughlin in charge of publicity, are to be congratulated on the success of the drive. Ellwood City has never failed to respond to the call of the needy and it is expected that the small deficit will be made up by late this evening, when the drive will officially close.

Seniors Ready To Present Play Here

College Comedy Drama In Four Acts To Be Given Tuesday And Wednesday
Evenings

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—Final rehearsals are being held by members of the cast of the 1930 Senior class play "The Touchdown" which will be presented in the Lincoln auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week. There are 13 in the cast, and the plot thickens in a most interesting manner as the actors go on, the action centering about a young student who is interested in modeling, and through a misunderstanding a villain in the plot persuades "Watassa" an Indian co-ed to smash a model he had worked on for many weeks. She offers to let him model her as an Indian girl in her ceremonial robes, which he does and—but that would be giving the entire plot away. Anyway it all ends well and the hero and heroine live more or less happily ever after.

was a quiet one, the only attendants being Mr. and Mrs. George Zollman of this city. At the conclusion of the marriage service the wedding party motored to Ellwood City, having deferred the post-nuptial trip until later.
For the present Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside with the bride's parents on Crescent avenue. Both are well-known local young people and are employed at the Shelby Tube company.

Ellwood Baseball Team Drops Game

Game In Rochester Saturday
Results In One-Sided Victory For Valley

Valley Aggregation Proves Too Powerful For Locals,
Final Score Is 12-2

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—By the score of 12 to 2 Ellwood City dropped another baseball contest when the team traveled to Rochester on Saturday afternoon.

The Ruskovic machine used three pitchers, as Lauderback, Mundo and Boyle each saw action in an attempt to stem the bombardment launched by the enemy in the early part of the contest. Rochester seemed to be at its best and had no mercy on the visitors, swamping them from the start.

Although Ellwood's pitchers seemed out of form, Petrosky hurled a fine game for the winners. He allowed only seven hits and accounted for a run and a hit for his mates. Due to the heavy hitting the opponents kept adding tallies in every session except the fifth. Not only did Ellwood fail to hit the ball, but the local nine had a poor fielding day with a total of five errors which materially assisted Rochester in copping the tilt. In the opening frame Rochester started the fireworks by collecting three tallies.
They kept the work up by adding one in the next and two in the third inning.

It was not until the fourth inning that Fitzgerald and Irwin crossed the plate for the only two runs which the Tubers collected. During the same period the Valley crew annexed one. Both teams went scoreless in the fifth frame, but the winners were not contented so they secured one run in the sixth and continued to cross the plate with two more tallies in the seventh and the same number in the eighth.

On Memorial Day the local tossers travel to Beaver and on the following day will entertain the Beaver Falls ball team on the local lot.

Slippery Rock Church Program

the church.
Tuesday evening Mrs. M. C. Stevenson's Sunday school class will conduct a monthly meeting in the church.
Wednesday night Prayer meeting at the home of Howard Houk of the New Castle road.
Friday from 10 o'clock on there will be a special memorial celebration in the church.
Friday afternoon at the close of the program there will be a meeting of the Men's club of the church.
Saturday afternoon Wilbur Bar-nett's and Mrs. Joe Houk's classes will meet in the church for Children's Day rehearsal.

M. E. Church Weekly Program

ities this week in the Methodist church include the following:
Tonight at 7:45 there will be a meeting of the Official Board of the church.
Tuesday at 6:30 p. m., members of the Isabelle Thoburn class will enjoy a tureen dinner meeting in the dining room.
Wednesday prayer meeting with a discussion on "The Holy Spirit" by the pastor.

Local Athletes Awarded Prizes At Altoona Meet

Ellwood City High Trackmen
Score Heavily In The
P. I. A. A. Meet In Altoona Saturday

District Trophy Number 7 Won By Locals With Total Score Of Nine Points

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—Ellwood
City high school representatives continued to add track and field honors to their large collection with the Fubers quartet of athletes copped prizes at the P. I. A. A. meet in Altoona Saturday. Williamsport high school copped the top berth with a total of 22 points, while Dick Bartholomew's blue and white representatives won the district 7 trophy of the W. P. I.
A. A. L. by scoring nine points.

According to the standings, Ellwood tied for sixth place with Erie Academy for the team ratings, which were as follows: Williamsport 22 points,
Bedford 17, Nanticoke 12, Plymouth
11, Altoona 9, Erie Academy and Ellwood each 9 points, Conneville 7, Easton 6, Sharon 5, Haverford, Norristown, Swarthmore, Beaver Falls,
Butler, Westinghouse and Uniontown, each 4, points. Two hundred scholastic athletes from 60 high schools took part in this gigantic meet.

Captain Mike Dunn led the Ellwood quartet for the honors by winning first place in the 220-yard low hurdles. MacMurdo and Gross took part in the half mile and the former copped fourth place. Knight, who represented the Tubers in the pole vault, was in a three way tie for third place.
All in all the blue and white clad athletes, who earned their right to be in the big meet by their fine work in the W. P. I. A. A. classic, made an impressive record, and one which adds much credit to the glory already won by Ellwood City this year.

This fine exhibition of track work is the most outstanding accomplishment of the Tubers, as they had already won the W. P. I. A. A. and Beaver Valley meets. Coach Dick Bartholomew and his crew will continue their work when on Wednesday they compete with Grove City, the winner of the N. P. I. A. L. The Tubers hope to add more laurels when they participate in this dual meet.

band will go to Beaver Falls this evening, where they will take part in a mammoth massed-band contest to be held in Reeves Stadium at 8:15
P. M.

James Jones Is Buried Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—James Jones, Confederate soldier in the Civil war, was buried Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from his late home on Crescent avenue. Mr. Jones passed away Thursday night at his home after a long illness.

Services were conducted by Rev.
Bert Williams of the First Baptist church. Many friends paid final respects to Mr. Jones, who has been a highly respected resident of this community for many years. A wealth of lovely flowers gave mute testimony as to his standing in the hearts of his many friends.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Jones, 1012 S. Y.
Douds, George Burns and Charles Weyman. Burial took place in the Locust Grove cemetery.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Schenck Occur Saturday

Many Relatives And Friends Pay
Final Respects To The Memory Of Well-Known Woman

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—The Schenck home on Second street was crowded Saturday night with relatives and friends paying final respects to the beloved memory of the late Mrs.
Julia Schenck, who passed away
Thursday night.

The color and profusion of the floral offerings recalled to many the scene in that home last year when many lovely floral donations marked the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Schenck. The services were conducted by Rev. A. M. Stevenson of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Schenck was a faithful member, and Rev. Dr. Charles Bell.

Local Marble Champ Shows Up Well In Contest Saturday

ELLWOOD CITY, May 26.—Playing against the best in this district, Alfred Pasta, marble champion of this city, made an impressive showing at Youngstown on Saturday. He played thirteen games, losing six and winning seven.

A Youngstown youth won the district title and will have the honor of going to the Atlantic City contest.
Alfred had the thrill of defeating the champion when they were matched in the eliminations, but the local youth grew tired as the games progressed, surrendering the crown eventually to the Youngstown champion.

NEW CASTLE HIGH TEAM WINS PITT MEET

"Babe" Clemens Stars For Local Track Team

Local "Cinder Pounders" Score In Seven Events To Retain Title

Clairton Finishes Second, Ford City Third, And Grove City Fourth

New Castle High School's track team for the second year in succession won the Pitt Interscholastic track and field meet, which was staged at Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The Red and Black "cinder pounders" scored in seven events to retain the title captured last year. "Babe" Clemens surprised by winning the half mile runs to give New Castle 10 points. New Castle scored 21 3-4 points to win the meet. Clairton was second with 14 points while Ford City was third with 12 1-4 points.

Clemens ran two beautiful races to break the tape first in the mile and half mile runs. Clemens' time in the mile was 4:41 1-5 seconds. He won the half mile run with a time of 2:06 2-5 seconds. Clemens' established what is believed to be a record around this second Saturday's victory in the mile marked the second time in two days he won the mile run. On Friday night in the Night Relay Carnival here he comes from behind to win the mile.

In addition to the two first places in the mile and half mile runs New Castle scored second in the low hurdles, discus, and broad jump. The locals secured a tie for third in the pole vault. A lad on the local team that deserves credit is Francis Waino who competed in the meet with a bad ankle. He turned his ankle in the relay meet here. Although he was under this handicap he scored points in the broad jump, high jump, and pole vault to help New Castle win the meet.

Locals Second in Relay

New Castle was second in the mile relay which was won by Steubenville High with a time of 3:35 2-5 seconds. Competition was keen it is shown by the fact that three of last year's records were broken and three equaled. The shot, 440 and javelin records were broken while the marks in the 100 and 220 and low hurdles were tied.

Clemens Tied for First

The individual scoring trophy was won by Clemens of New Castle. Pryor of Ford City who were tied for first place with 10 points. Pitt officials stated that each athlete will receive a cup instead of tossing a coin for the cup.

Following is the summary of the events and the winners.

Track Events:

100-yard dash—Won by Pryor, Ford City; Millard, Peabody, second; Bohlender, Grove City, third; Schnellback, Peabody, fourth. Time 10 1-10 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles—Final—Won by Moore, Linsley, Johnson, Connellville, second; Berger, Wheeling, third; Boger, Wheeling, fourth. Time 17 1-5 seconds.

220-yard dash—Won by Pryor, Ford City; Dore, Johnstown, second; Burghwin, fourth. Time 22 1-5 seconds.

220-yard low hurdles—Won by John Wilkinsburg; Greensburg, New Castle, second; Clarkson, Grove City, third; Kern, Connellville, fourth. Time 27 1-5 seconds.

440-yard run—Won by Stern, Steubenville; Marshall, Clairton, second; Johnstown, fourth. Time 50 seconds. (New meet record.)

880-yard run—Won by Clemens, New Castle; Howe, Clairton, second; Cripples, Clairton, third; King, East Brady, fourth. Time 2:06 2-5 seconds.

880-yard relay—Won by Peabody (Eberts, Schnellback, Binstock, Milligan); Steubenville second; Freedom, third; Ferndale, fourth. Time 1:33.

Mile relay—Won by Steubenville (Burgwin, H. Stern, Bell, J. Stern); New Castle, second; Clairton, third; Westinghouse, fourth. Time 3:35 2-5 seconds.

Field Events

Shot put—Won by Young, Beaver Falls; Gionglloff, Nantygio, second.

Plan To Open Full 18-Holes At Muny Course On Friday

Decoration Day Will See Opening Of Full 18-Holes At Municipal Golf Course

Formal Opening Of Handsome Clubhouse Will Take Place On Thursday Evening

At the regular weekly meeting of the Muny Golf Committee, held at the Club House, it was reported by the house committee, headed by L. B. Round, that the furnishings of the Club House have been completely installed, that the lockers and showers in both the ladies and the mens departments are ready for use, and the dining room and restaurant equipment in place. The lounge is equipped with easy chairs and settees; two large window drapes of olive green to match the panel motif in the room decorations, the room presents a pleasing and comfortable air.

In the main dining room, the tables and chairs are treated in a soft green, while the drapes are of rich figured gold, in harmony with the walls.

In the restaurant, the whole effect is white enamel.

The ladies rest rooms are equipped with showers and lockers, dressing table, easy chairs, and couch. The tone of the wash room and showers, is old ivory.

In the mens department, which is located in the second floor of the office building, which adjoins the club house in the rear, are located wash rooms, showers and lockers.

In the basement of the office building has been established a comfort station for general use of the caddies and public.

Formal Opening Thursday

It was decided that the formal opening of the Club House for inspection by the public would be held on Thursday evening May 29th, at this time the members of Council will assist the committee in receiving the guests, and conducting them on a tour of inspection. Daniel Woolcock, president of the School Board, and member of the Golf Committee is arranging the affair, and stated to the committee that he expects to provide an orchestra for the occasion and that light refreshments will be served to the visiting ladies.

To this affair, all citizens are invited, and it is expected that a large number will take advantage of the opportunity to inspect the Club House and grounds, because it is something of which every member of the community feels proud. Furthermore, the Club House is a public building, for the use of the public, and it is hoped that free use will be made of its facilities especially by the ladies. The Club rooms will be ideal for card parties and committee meetings.

18 Holes Friday

Daniel Woolcock reporting on the Grounds and Upkeep, stated that the new greens were rounding into shape, and were now being cut and rolled to be ready for use. The upper fairways in some places are still bare, but it was decided by the committee that the second nine holes would be opened for play on Memorial Day. This is especially necessary because the first nine holes which are now in use, are badly crowded on busy afternoons. Mr. Woolcock also reported that notwithstanding the fact that the committee thought that ample parking space had been provided, it was becoming a problem where to park all the cars which come to the course on busy days, and more parking space would have to be arranged for.

Mr. Woolcock was authorized to take the necessary steps to arrange for more space for this purpose.

Pirates-Reds Split Twin Bill

Pirates Take First Game Of Double Bill 6 To 5—Reds Win Second Game 4 To 3

ROOKIE CHAGNON PITCHES WELL

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 26.—The Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Reds divided a twin bill here yesterday afternoon. The invaders from Smoketown won the first game 6 to 5 in a ten inning affair, while the Reds won the second game 4 to 3.

Grantham was the feature hitter of the first game with a home run, he also had a double. Kremer and Spencer toiled the first game for the Pirates and were found for thirteen hits. Spencer got credit for winning the game. Benton late of the Giants pitched for the Reds and was hit timely by the Pirates. Kolp finished the game and was charged with the defeat.

The second game was a pitchers battle between Chagnon and Lucas, without giving a hit until the fifth inning, Chagnon walked five and fanned five in his first game as a starting pitcher.

W. P. I. A. L. League Wins State Track Championship

MUSHBALL LEAGUE

Tonight the Industrial League teams will climb back into the harness for a set of four games. The games tonight are as follows—News Printers vs Engineering Works, Carnegie Field; Lockley Machines vs Radiator Works, Radiator Field; Shenango Tin vs Penn-Ohio Electric at Lehigh Field; Lehigh Cement vs Bell Telephones, George Washington Field.

The games start at 6:30 o'clock. The players must be on the field ready for play at 6:45 o'clock or else forfeit the game.

Tuesday night the Mercantile league plays with the following games scheduled—Phalanx vs Bankers, George Washington Field; Haney vs Post Office, Carnegie Field; Firemen vs Richmans, Lehigh Field; Spencers vs News Slugs, Radiator Field.

Some of the pitchers still persist in using a windup prior to delivering the ball. This is not allowed. The managers are asked to adhere strictly to the rules in regard to pitching, and see that your hurler is using a regular delivery.

Remember the rules of mushball are slightly different than baseball. Consult your rule book when in doubt, and don't try to argue with a baseball rule as a background.

Ellwood City Is Leader In District's Win At Altoona On Saturday

Dunn Of Ellwood City Takes First Place In 220 Low Hurdles

Williamsport high school captured the Pennsylvania state individual school championship in the P. I. A. A. track and field meet held at Altoona on Saturday. Williamsport scored 22 points. The district trophy went to district No. 7 which is the W. P. I. A. L. and will be held by Ellwood City as the highest scoring team in this district. The district point total was 45. Ellwood City scored nine of them.

The standing of the teams follows: Williamsport, 22 points; Bedford, 17; Nanticoke, 12; Plymouth, 11; Altoona, 9; Erie Academic and Ellwood City tied with 9 points; Connellville, 7; Easton, 6; Sharon, 5; Haverford, Norristown, Swarthmore, Beaver Falls, Butler, Westinghouse and Uniontown scored 4 1/2 points.

Following is the district standing: District No. 7, 45 points; district No. 4, 30 points; district No. 1, 26 points; district No. 2, 24 1/2 points; district No. 5, 17 points; district No. 8, 14 1/2 points; district No. 3, 11 1/2 points; district No. 6, 9 1/2 points.

Dunn, Knight Score for Tubers.

Dunn captured first in the 220 low hurdles and Knight scored in the pole vault to give Ellwood 9 1/2 points, enough to lead this district in scoring.

Giants Lose As Critz Bobbles

Hughie Critz' Errs In Tenth To Allow Brooklyn To Beat New York Giants

CARDINALS TAKE LEAD IN LEAGUE

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 26.—If you haven't been able to make those radishes out in the backyard grow fast enough or if your wife has been telling you in-laws you are a pretty good fellow but not aggressive enough, don't feel too badly about it. Shake it off! Even great men can't click all the time and often fail at their own game.

For instance, there was Napoleon. Or take today's case of little Hughie Critz, the Giants' new second baseman. Here we have the perfect ball player, the key of the Keystones—the man they say McGraw broke down and cried for.

It was Sunday afternoon in Ebbets field, the Giants and Brooklyn were tied at three runs in the tenth inning and Fredericks of the flock was on third base. Then Jake Flowers hit an easy grounder to Mr. Critz. And what did our hero do? There goes your ball game, for Hughie, the perfect, fumbled, Fredericks scored and the Robins won, 4 to 3.

Cards Take Lead
The Cubs, too, had their Hughes yesterday, for infield misplays gave the Cards a start and they came from behind to lower the Bruins, 6 to 3, giving St. Louis undisputed lead over Brooklyn in the National League thriller.

Big Fred Marberry gave the Hubbox only three hits and the amazing Washington Senators won again, defeating Boston 5 to 0.

Pitcher Red Lucas scored the winning run that gave Cincinnati a 4 to 3 nod over the Pirates, the first win of the Reds in 11 starts. Spencer, relief hurler, tripled and scored the winning run for the Pirates, 6 to 5, in the opener.

LeRoy Mahaffey, baby member of the Athletics, stopped the Yankees, 10 to 3, as Pippas failed. Babe Ruth didn't get a hit.

Scoring nine runs in the first five innings the Detroit Tigers staggered to a victory, 9 to 8 over St. Louis and Ted Lyons hurled his sixth straight masterpiece as Cleveland bowed to the White Sox 9 to 1.

Rained washed out the Phillies and Braves.

Saturday Winners At Field Club

Competition was keen Saturday afternoon at the golf course of the New Castle Field club in the best ball team match, one-half combined handicap event.

The scores follow:

Class A

A. S. Street and R. L. Wallace 87 18 69

Hon. James A. Chambers and J. Clyde Gillfillan 87 17 70

G. D. Blair, Jr., and Charles Matthews, Jr. 87 16 71

Class B

C. L. Shira and W. J. Caldwell 88 22 66

F. J. Perry and E. C. Johnson 101 31 70

In these piping times of peace, any good air pilot is called an "ace". By this token, we presume that the lad who swiped a plane at Roosevelt Field but failed to get it off the ground was a duce.—The New London Day.

Is This A System?

Having been soundly walloped almost all along the line at football last Fall, the East is girding its loins and gritting its teeth—determined to "get even on" the West at the Poughkeepsie regatta, June 26, at the annual Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association field games and track meet in Cambridge, Mass., and at three or four other big contests of a similar nature that will be held during the next six months. The East wishes to expose as both a fable and a fallacy the not uncommon belief that "the West wins five out of six inter-collegiate contests."

There is still considerable confusion as to what constitutes East and West in the U. S. sports sense. Some naturally hold that the Mississippi River is the dividing line. Of course, years of tradition would make it seem that all is labeled West beyond and including Pittsburgh. To this day, most people still consider Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, etc., as representing the West; thus leaving only the Atlantic seaboard States to constitute the East. That's certainly a weirdly unfair division, geographically or sportively. The idea must go back even farther than Walter Camp's All-American football selections. That conception of East and West must have originated in Revolutionary War times and been propagated by the forty-niners. To the Sport Bug, the old Mississippi would seem to be the fair boundary line.

However, with Washington aroused by its two-mile race victory over the University of California crew, and both entered in the Poughkeepsie regatta, Columbia, Syracuse and Penn will certainly have to bend to oars for the East.

And Barney Berlinger, decathlon ideal, with his fellow Penn stalwarts, a sprinkling of Yale stars, and others from Eastern colleges will have to be at their best to take the field and track measure of a host of huskies and swiftness from Southern California and other Pacific Coast universities in the intercollegiate.

To paraphrase of Kipling: "East is East and West is West and SURE the twin 'll meet!"

Cannon Pitches Fine Game, Handy Service Victors

Hollis Cannon Pitches Handy Service Store Team To Victory Over Energy

With Hollis Cannon, former New Castle O. & P. leaguer, on the mound the Handy Service Stores team beat Energy 9 to 8 in a City-County league tilt at Centennial field on Saturday afternoon.

Cannon toyed with the Energy team, he gave them seven hits and fanned 11 men. Kennedy of the Energy team was the feature hitter of the game with a home run drive. Both teams kicked in with a lot of errors.

Wednesday at 6:15 o'clock the Handy Service team goes to West Pittsburgh for a league game. Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock the Handy Service meets the Cascade A. C. and also in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Saturday the Handy Service boys play the Polish A. A. in a league game. There is a practice at 6:15 o'clock tonight for the team at Centennial field.

Cascade A. C. Wins Over Bessemer 13-12

Slugging Match At Cascade Field Goes To Locals In League Game Saturday

The Cascade A. C. team won a slug-slugging match from Bessemer at the Cascade Field on Saturday afternoon. The final score was 13 to 12. It was a weird game from start to finish. Cascade used three pitchers and Bessemer used two in the game. Thirty-five hits were made, and twelve errors were chalked up. The game was decided in the tenth inning.

Jones, Stanley, Valentine, Rodgers, Lenhart and Hood hit the ball hard for their respective teams. Bessemer at one point in the game led 8 to 3 but could not hold their lead.

By winning the game the Cascade team held first place in the league.

Wednesday night the Cascade team tangles with Energy at the Cascade Field in a league tilt.

West Pittsburgh Tops Polish A. A.

Brakovich Pitches Fine Ball As Garlands Take 6 To 5 Victory Saturday

The West Pittsburgh Garlands overhauled the Polish A. A. 6 to 5 in a City-County league game played Saturday at the West Pittsburgh field.

Passalunqua gave the Garlands a big lead in the first inning when he smote the ball for a home run with the bases choked with players. The Polish A. A. had one big inning, the fourth, when they scored three runs. Glasser hit a home run for the Polish boys in the first inning.

The game was loosely played with three errors on each team. Baker scored the winning run for the Garlands in the eighth on a passed ball. In the final inning with one man on base and two outs the sensational one-handed catch by Fundoots of a hard hit liner out near the fence saved the day for the Garlands. Fundoots is one of the best outfielders in the league.

W. Soho and Zidow pitched good ball for the Polish boys, allowing but five hits between them. Brakovich fanned nine men.

Army Airplanes Will Take Part In Encampment

Will Be Feature Of Big Day
Of The Coming G. A. R.
Encampment

LIEUTENANT EATON
WILL BE COMMANDER

Fred L. Rentz, General Chairman of the G. A. R. Encampment Committee, was advised today by Major W. Fulton Jackson, member of the Shenango Valley Chapter, Reserve Officers Association, and also a member of the Military Committee of the coming encampment, that providing no unforeseen incidents occurred, that two army airplanes and four army pilots from Rodgers Field, Pittsburgh, would be here on Wednesday, June 11, and take a prominent part in the events of that day in connection with the encampment of the Pennsylvania Department of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Through the efforts of Major Jackson and Lieutenant John D. Kennedy, president of the Shenango Valley Chapter, Reserve Officers Association, First Lieutenant Samuel C. Eaton, Jr., commanding officer of Rodgers Field, on his recent visit to the local chapter, was approached on the subject of adding something to the interest of the convention.

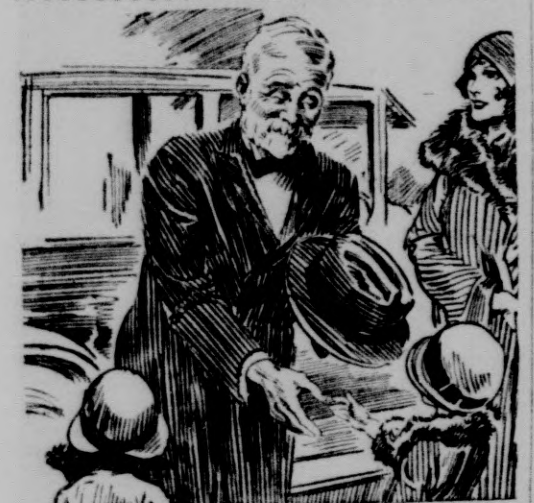

In a communication received today, Lieutenant Eaton sends the pleasing information that the request has been granted, providing of course, that weather or some other condition, does not interfere.

These planes and pilots under command of Lieutenant Eaton will put on special maneuvers during the parade on that date, also possibly during other parts of that day. It should prove one of the big features of the occasion.

FAMILY DOCTOR MADE MILLIONS OF FRIENDS

Fifteen years after his graduation, Dr. Caldwell became famous for a single prescription, which now, after forty years, is still making friends. Today Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the world's most popular laxative. Millions of people never think of using anything else when they're constipated, headachy, bilious, feverish or weak; when breath is bad, tongue coated, or they're suffering from nausea, gas, or lack of appetite or energy. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made today according to the original formula, from herbs and other pure ingredients. It is pleasant-tasting; thorough in the most obstinate cases; gently effective for women and children. Above all, it represents a doctor's choice of what is safe for the bowels.

Vacant House Is Badly Damaged By Fire Early Sunday

$500 Damage Results From Blaze In Home Owned By Joseph Welch On West
Lincoln Avenue

Fire of undetermined origin which was discovered at 2:55 Sunday morning did $500 damage to the home owned by Joseph Welch at 417 West Lincoln avenue. The house was unoccupied. The blaze originated in a toilet on the first floor and when discovered had gained a considerable start, burning through the walls of the house and through the roof. Mr. Welch told Fire Chief Lynn that a paperhanger had been working in the building and may have dropped a match among some refuse in the room. It was hardly believed by the chief that the fire would smoulder that long before breaking out.

Bee Management Meeting Will Be Conducted Wednesday

E. J. Anderson And Harold McCulloch Will Conduct Demonstration

A bee management meeting will be conducted on the farm of J. W. McCurdy, near Fayette, Wilmington township, Wednesday afternoon, at 1:30, Lawrence County Farm Agent H. R. McCulloch announces. E. J. Anderson, of State College, specialist on the study of bees, will be in charge of a demonstration of the method of transferring bees from bcr hives to the modern movable frame hives. There will be a discussion of general bee management.

Pittsburgh Hotel Men Coming Here

Will Be Guests Of John L. Slack
Of The Castleton At Golf
And Dinner Wednesday

Approximately twenty members of the Pittsburgh Hotel Managers Association will be here Wednesday as the guests of John L. Slack of The Castleton for a golf match and dinner. They will arrive here about noon and after spending the afternoon in golf at the New Castle Field Club, will be entertained at dinner in the hotel early in the evening. Mr. Slack is a member of the Association, which meets monthly in Pittsburgh or one of the cities in the district immediately surrounding.

Approve Right Of Way For Sewer

Council met in regular session today at the city hall and reported favorably from a committee an ordinance condemning land for a right of way for a storm sewer from Wilmington avenue to the Shenango river. The storm sewer is to divert water from the city to the river. The right of way will be 10 feet wide and pass through lands now owned by S. R. Bratchie, Elizabeth Bratchie, Tefereth Israel Cemetery company, Hugh Barnes and City of New Castle Water company. The ordinance will be printed pending final passage.

Name Committee For Final Election

William H. Dunlap Chosen
Chairman Of Committee
For C. Of C. Election

Announcement was made this morning by Secretary A. W. Chilton of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, that the election committee which will conduct the final election for directors has been named by President W. P. Moody, Hon. William H. Dunlap being chairman and Joel S. Noel, cashier of the First National bank, and DeLace Cole of the W. J. Offutt company being the other members.

The polls will close on Monday, June 2, at noon, after which the election committee will meet and count the ballots cast.

A reorganization meeting will follow the election, when new officers will be selected to serve during the ensuing year.

Sixteen nominees have been named, from which the six directors will be chosen by members of the chamber.

Attend State K. Of C. Meeting

Hanlon And Capitola In Erie For 35th Annual Convention
Of Knights This Week

Bernard N. Hanlon, secretary of the New Castle Motor club, and P. P. Capitola are in Erie attending the state convention of the Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Hanlon is state secretary of the K. of C., while Mr. Capitola is past grand knight of the local council. Both were present at the third annual communion breakfast Sunday morning, which preceded the opening of the convention on the 35th annual event.

Those in attendance convened for 8 o'clock mass Sunday morning, after which they received holy communion in a body and marched from St. Peter's cathedral to the Josephinum, where breakfast was served.

Sessions will last through the middle of the week.

Completing Work On Pulaski Road

County Commissioner Calvin C. Boyd reports that Contractor J. C. Devine will complete work on the New Wilmington-Pulaski road this week. Some time ago and the road was opened for travel, but there is still some cleaning up and grading work to be done, before the road can be formally taken over.
